THE COLOR PURPLE

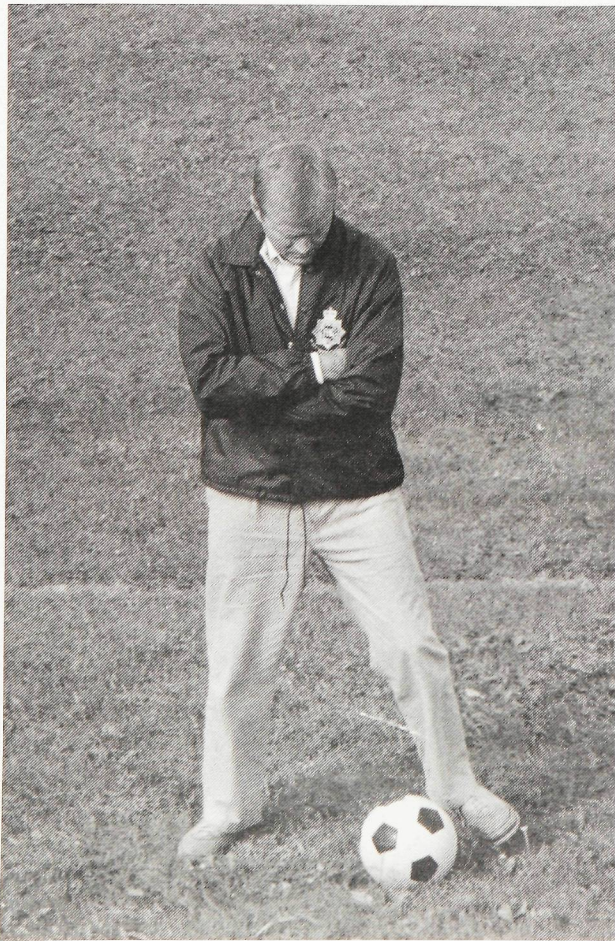

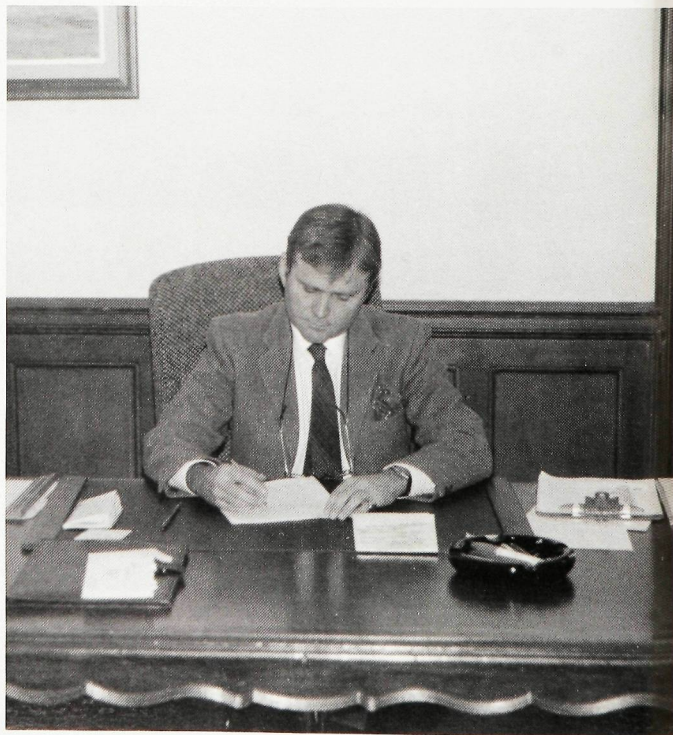

THE GODFATHER

Today is a sunny, clear, blue skied, November day and I am sitting here thinking about the School; the 'election' (in School,) Challenge Week, the soon to be Carol Service and Band Concert, the Play - and movies!

The Editor was right when she said that I would face a real challenge when writing this article because of the 'movie' theme of the Yearbook. So many films today tend to deal with the baser side of human nature and often tend to neglect the essential goodness of people and the beautiful side of the world in which we live. It is this goodness and beauty we see so much of here at BCS. I consider myself fortunate indeed to be able to spend this part of my life in this beautiful place surrounded by young people and colleagues who are living examples of what is best in mankind. Yes, there are tears. Yes, there are heartaches. And yes, there are disappointments. But BCS is a living example of the very best elements in any society - courage, hard work, participation, mutual support, warmth and good cheer.

The story of BCS would make a great book and a wonderful movie, which perhaps one day will happen. In the meantime the drama continues to unfold, no doubt as it should, and we play our parts to the best of our respective abilities. The standard of performance is high. We can expect - and we demand - nothing less.

David A.G. Cruickshank, M.A.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN

"Movies" - What an apt theme for a yearbook. Most (if not all) movies are intended to tell a story, just as is this yearbook. It tells the story of a year at BCS and a year which I know has been (and will be - this is being written in December 1988) filled with challenges, excitement, success and, yes, probably even a few disappointments.

But back to movies; I think we would all agree that the most successful movies contain one or both of a new idea or a new perspective on an old idea. It is the new idea or new perspective that keeps the movie watcher interested, entertained and, in many instances, stimulated. There is no substitute for a new idea or a new perspective.

One of the hallmarks of a good education is the student's ability to question, analyze, criticize and reflect upon information. It is only through this process that new ideas and thoughts are developed.

However, the questioning process must always be positive; positive questioning and constructive criticism expand horizons. Negative criticism is unproductive and breeds narrowmindedness. BCS teaches and nurtures the positive questioning process; enjoy it, learn it, and use it to develop your ideas and perspectives.

Good luck to you all.

THE UNTOUCHABLES

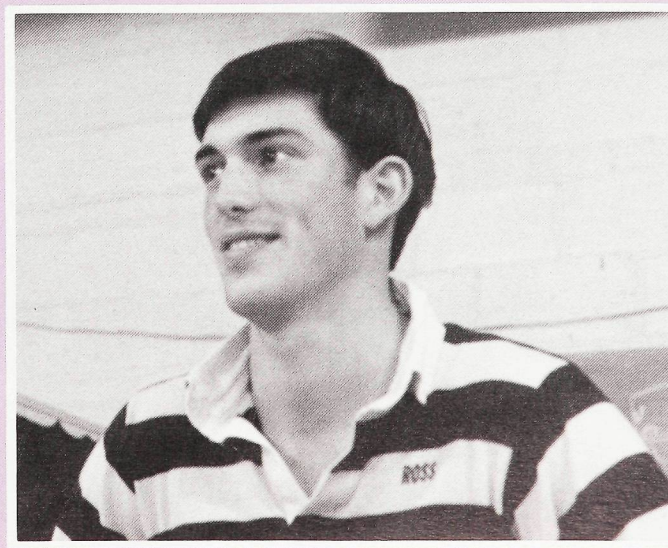

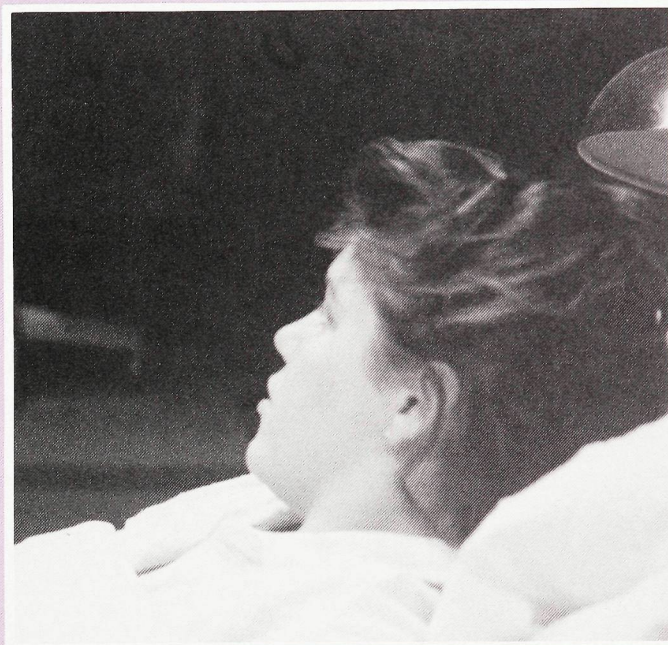

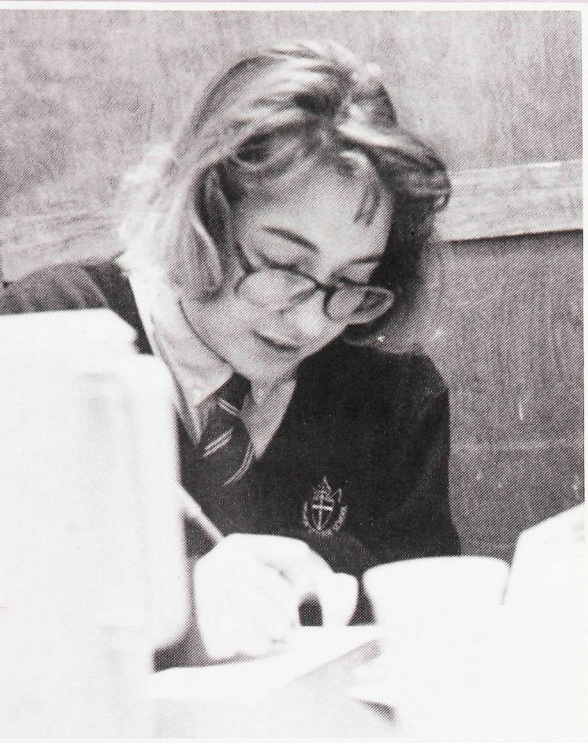

What does that sign say on the door? Oh well, who can resist jive talkin' to the Bee Gees and White Lines. Though it was always the cleanest room in the school (ha) our thick plush carpet and meticulous furnishings soon lost their sparkle. 'Cmon Don and Lisa, I know its the only place in the school with a couch and a lock, but I have to do send-ins!

A ninety in music Anne? Oh Mummy's going to be sooo happy. Once, twice . . . Shut your face Charlie!!! Umm, bad day Raquel? P.C.O. Who's on flag duty? Maybe we'll all pass cake at Clinton Community College. Ann's just nice enough to make you feel guilty when you bug her (though that never stopped any of us, did it).

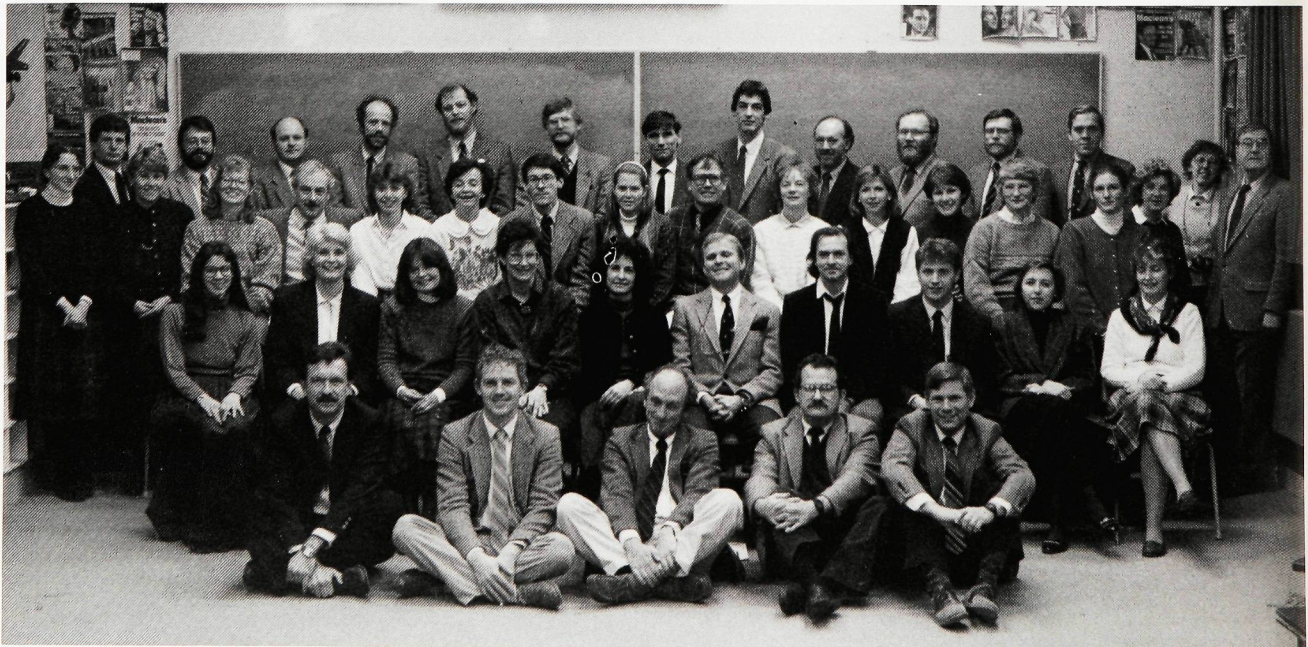

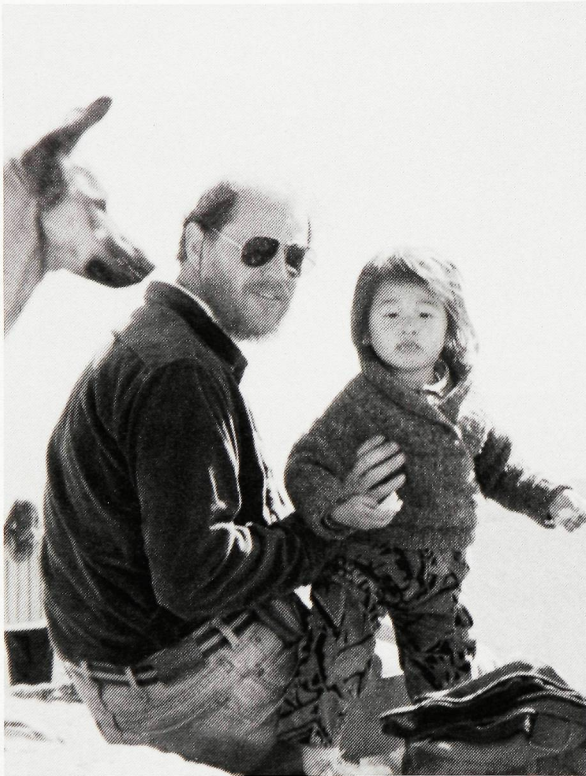

P.S. And Jeff's infamous words "Togetherness brought us together!"

THE HOUSE AT POOH CORNER

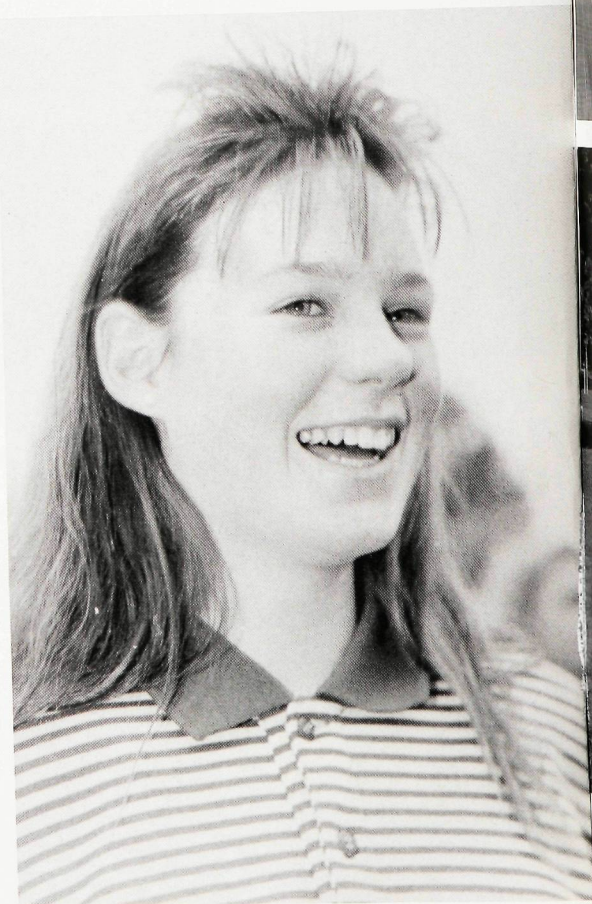

House meeting!!

"All de vay, man!!" T.P. problems? Hola! Que tal, Ana Laura. Mum. An-Lin, tuck, pleeease?! "Anyone want the rest of my gummy bears? I can't finish them all." Laps, laps, laps . . . "Food? Don't look at me, I'm wearing mine, but I think that Christy had some carrots that would go great with that scarf." Now, now, Deb, don't get incensed. "Sarah-Lise, I think I'll wait for you down here. It looks awful high up there." "C'mon, you two, outa the common room. We got a new team needing it." "C'mon guys, it's only a movie! Back massage + big 'C' = pure delight. Whatever you do, don't drink the O.J. War and Remembrance, Champagne Charlie. Whitchboard, D.O.A., Outrageous Fortune, The boys next-door etc. On a bicycle . . . !?!" Making contact Anabelle? Wake uuup!!! Nora! Your hair is pink! Celery anyone? A great year, lots of new faces.

"Some things are just so sacred."

We have taken a group of people who have one common goal. They all want to get through the year without getting expelled, suspended, or any variation of hours ranging from ten to fifty. Unfortunately some were not as lucky as others.

Meanwhile we discuss school issues at unattended house meetings.

The big surprise of the year was when the fearless house captains were chosen; a trekking flute freak, a Hendrix devotee, a half asleep hockey player, and the other one we won't mention. No one ever expected to see such an ensemble leading our house.

Our house prefect was a tough choice considering he is the only seventh former in Ross House. He is Don "the killer" Booth.

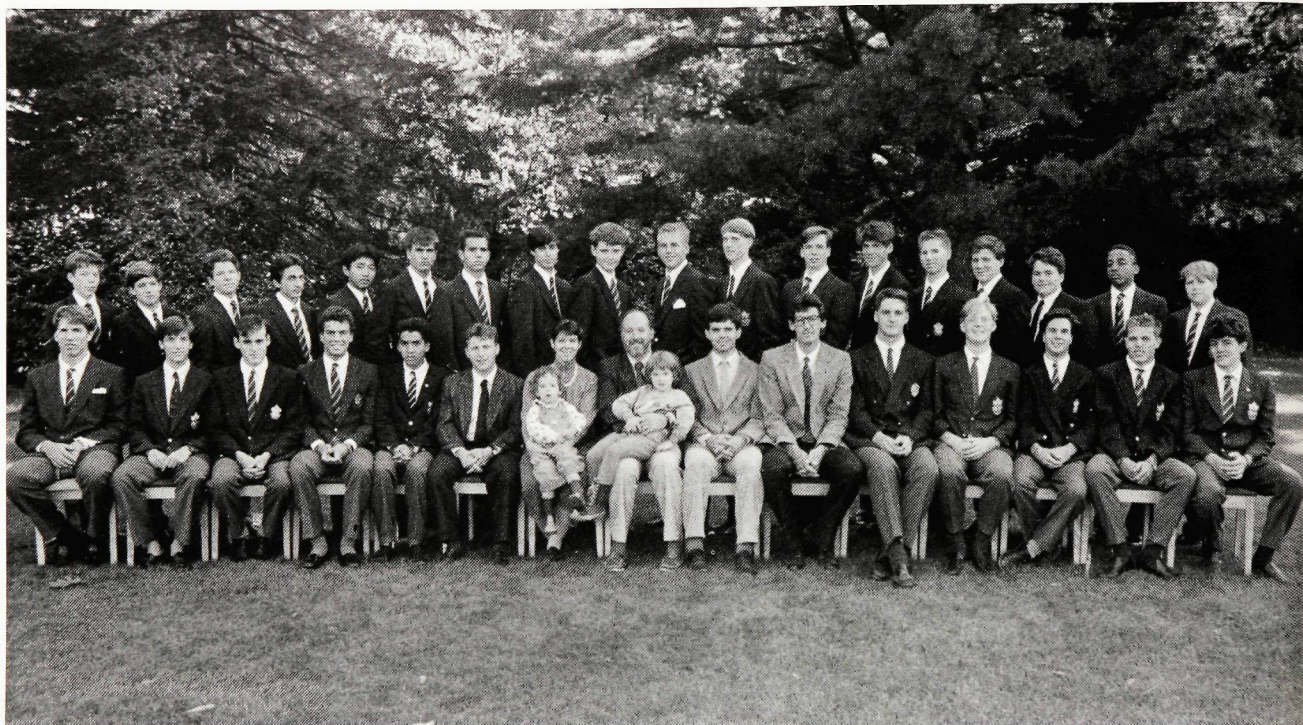

Scheibons, our carnival head, made us all proud with his interpretation of our winter festivities.

Cliffy, our honorable houseparent, was always there when we needed him . . . but we never showed up.

We would like to thank all the students who kept the common room from being trashed, despite the past years of destruction.

No rules will keep us down. We are and will always remain Ross Housers.

Only eight weeks and we must define our existence - mission impossible. We began with a book burning festival to start off the year. Mr. G. announced change, something did happen. Chris, where is that mural you promised? Thanks Taters for the movies and to the Grier North chefs for the pumpkin pie. We might still be the last on the laundry list yet as a house we reign supreme! Thanks to the all-new staff: Mr. Bedard, Mr. Hinz and his faithful dog Buddy. We still didn't get our V.C.R. back but "Gentlemen, go for the gusto and may the force be with you . . ."

McNaughton House has had a great start to 1988 under the supervision of Major Turner. Besides the fact that we have sinks in our rooms, McNaughton has many qualities. Our house captains (Hugh, Lyman, Richard and Yasu) have demonstrated an absolute power never seen before in the history of house captaincy. (Especially Yasu!)

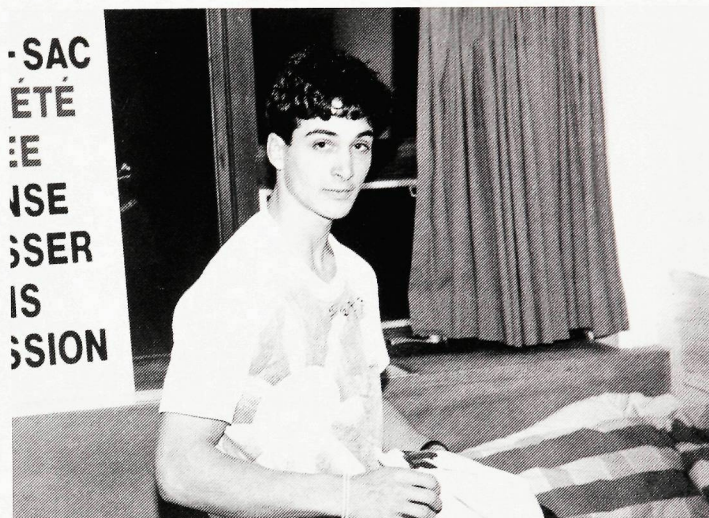

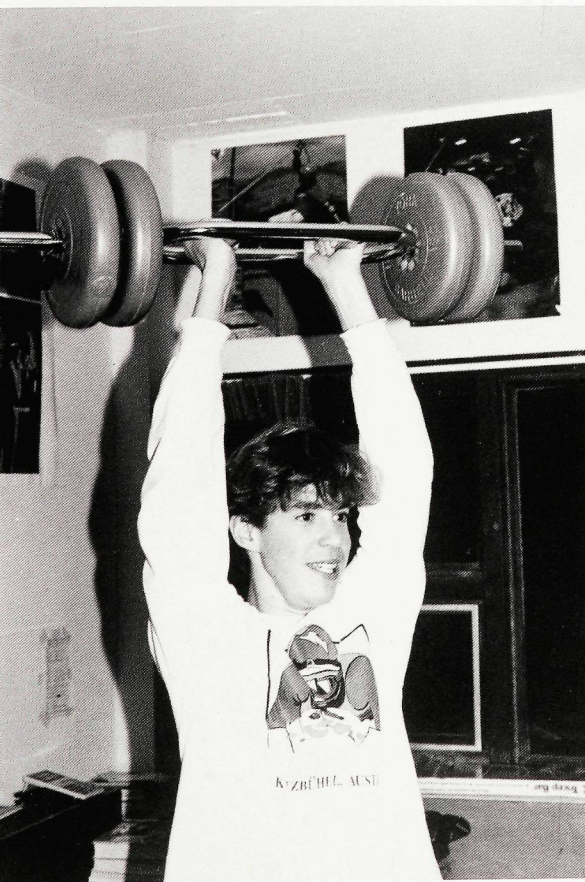

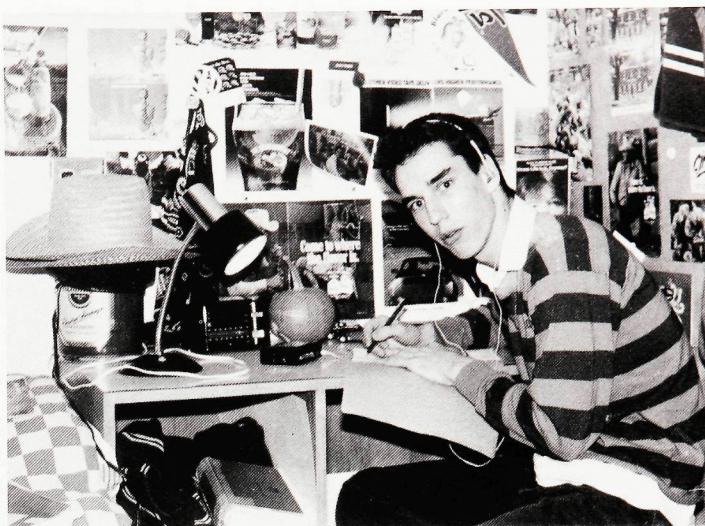

Those who are leaving us can look back and remember:

- Jeremy our ultimate scrap man.
- Richard's funny jokes. (Honestly guys, there is a house lap tomorrow morning at 6:10)
- Chuck (not the prefect) but our resident lizard.
- Sethi's posters.
- Keith and Mark. (addiction to licorice)
- Tiane and Brice. (spearfishmania)
- Where is Mark Bruno after chapel on a Sunday? . . . Dumb question!
- And lest we forget . . .
- Bob our Karate expert!

Many thanks to Mr. Marlin, Mr. Jansen, Mr. Brass and Major Turner for a great year.

J.S.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT

Ross House will conquer, Ross House is the best, best, best, best . . . Best what? House spirit, tuck shop (when it's open), we're the best over all! Mrs. Sakamoto - thanks! You were always with us with a positive word of encouragement - never forgetting a birthday. We could never forget our amazing house parties and of course, the yearly pancake supper. Pig out! Even if Ross House is a small house, we are united as a big family. We are the luckiest house, we get to live our lives at home with our friends, our families and our freedom - at the same time we get to live our lives at school with the activities, our friends . . . we've got it all.

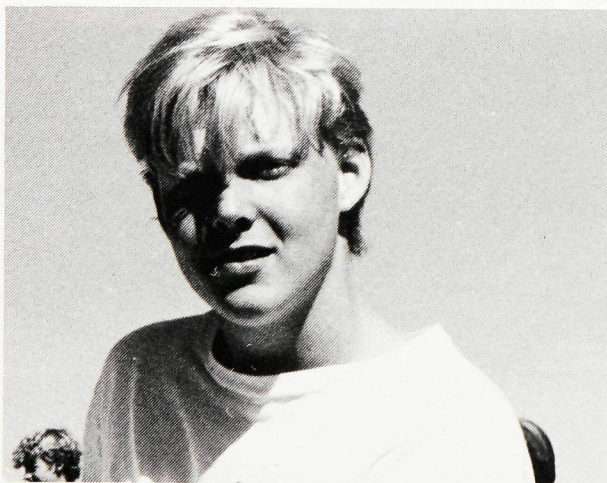

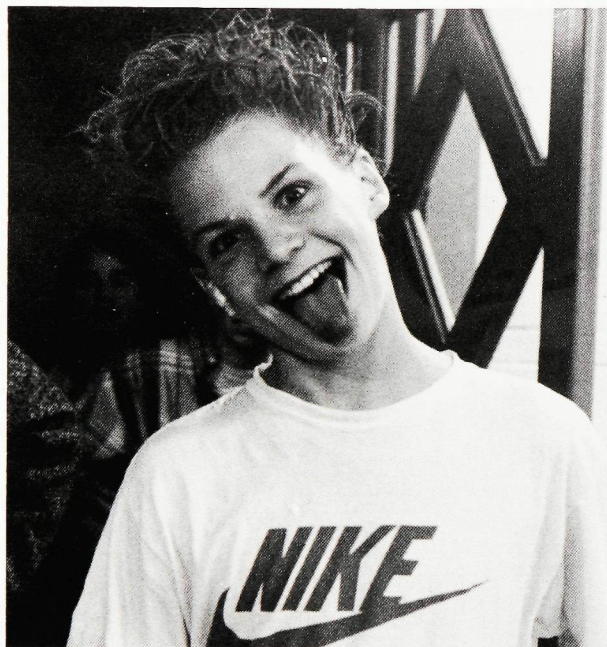

love, your House Captains.

GOONIES

September began with twenty new faces in a house of twenty-eight. Everyone was ready for the new adventure - prep, 6:45 wake-up, New Student Line (oh no!), LAPS, duty teams, and morning inspections. Then the boys realized beds must be made and clothes folded - oh, no, I have never folded my clothes before! The fall brought soccer, football, cross-country and karate. All were ready for the school Cross-Country. We came together as a group to help the final finishers across the line. Petty arguments and skirmishes developed into friendships. Sharing of games and computers became the habit. Sean and Sebastien fit everything into their room. How? We do not know! Chris and Steve just can't stop giggling. Late night pillow fights, getting caught, innocence, a big smile. Never have the seniors been so quiet. - Che's physical feats, the new common room for the House with Tim and Marcel, follow-ups and late nights, some mornings too early: Daniel and Sean - Dom and his many admirers. Where is the tuck key? - Sylvain's hockey skill, a regular early-morning for Jason, Sylvain and Daniel and the quietness of Alfred and Jason E. We have discovered the sport of ping-pong, thanks to the Johnsons. Now, everyone is learning about ping-pong in Arabic!!!

Once upon a time, in a school far far away (from decent civilization) stood a house. The house was a small, but other houses were smaller. It was far from the schoolhouse, but another house was farther. The house used to win races, but this year it did not. It used to sing loudly in the chapel but this year, in a burst of originality, other houses succeeded in singing just as loud.

But still the house would not change. For it was the 'house-captains-but-not-quite' stalking the halls: "Come on guys get to your rooms, please." - the silly cat running around, the trendy music volume wars on the first floor, the all night macaroni parties, the 'awesome' common room, the Japanese kid with nice posters (girl, girl, girl, DOG), the hockey Pro room (Junior and Danny), tuck which always comes up 15 dollars over, the hard core music lovers, the oafs (and those who wish they were oafs), the jocks (go Biff go!), the kid who never showed up, and the rest of us who made that house continue to be the 'individuals' house, Smith House.

There once was a woman who lived in a shoe (we think it was Cinderella's glass slipper). She had so many children (44 girls to be exact), that she didn't know what to do. (So she bought them Tuck to keep them quiet - but somehow that didn't quite work.) Two fearless house captains (lost, and found again) led the whole crew: Form two (all two), though the smallest, made the most noise of all. Form three ran a close second . . . through the halls of the house. Form four, the wake-up crew, either whispered too softly or screamed too loud. Form five, international, (but God help us if these are diplomats!) Form six, the insomniacs, got no sleep at all. Form seven, to do, or not to do . . . or just plan to party? Don't forget Prince Charming, (who tutored them in math), Rapunzel, O Rapunzel, with the golden hair and Mother Hubbard, who organized the Tuck Cupboard. Baby Bunting has gone a hunting, and twice the stork has delivered. Fee-Fi-Fo-Fum, get to your beds, 'cause bed-time has come! (Ha! 44 times)

All for one and one for all and the slipper sparkles with Perrier.

First Row: S. Boughey, A. Tuakalna, C. Hallward, D. Girardin, S. Ikeyama, C. Chen, Mr. DelBosco, Mrs. Cameron, Mr. Cameron, R. Romonado, Mr. St. Jacques, A. Ho, A. Touze Second Row: Y. Lai, G. Knapen, S. Desmeules, G. Turk, B. Enrich Schroder, D. McDougal, A. Abouon, P. Fonsato. Absent: T. Sethi

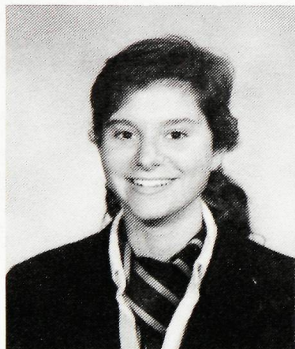

Common to Cameron, what a change! - in that little house, far down the lane where Mr. Cameron's the new guy on the block and B.C.S. imports and exports seem to flock. Remember:

The annoying noise that are Andy's label and "tuck man" Satoshi who is oh - so able. Shawn's hair that is never too short and Bruno, who is the romancing sort. Paolo is always in search of a bus with 'what the hell' Steve, who sure can cuss. Ahmed is that strong and silent type and Mrs. C's cakes bring a lot of hype. Dave G. loves his 'Nintendo'. While "WWF" Dave wastes Mr. C. and Romo. Trevor body builds for fun while Carlo eats until 'there's none'. Chuck is a regular for 'late lights'. Miami Andrew gets as far as Quebec Sud, and Mr. C. censors us - if only he could! H.M List Tejpal sure loves his T.V. but only if 'Jeopardy St. Jacques' has left the machine free. Greg, the Belgran poser, uses twenties to pay tuck while Ghaleb, the stallion, plays sports on luck. Finally the 'champs' captain, our Alfred makes darn sure we are all in bed.

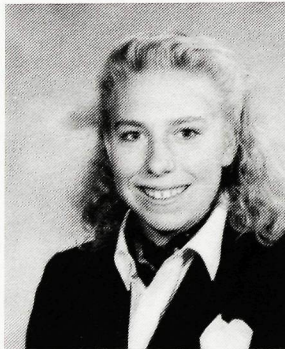

We are the Chapman House boys
Who never make a single noise
We just live, learn and play together and so, our memories will go on forever.

Doan de Champassak

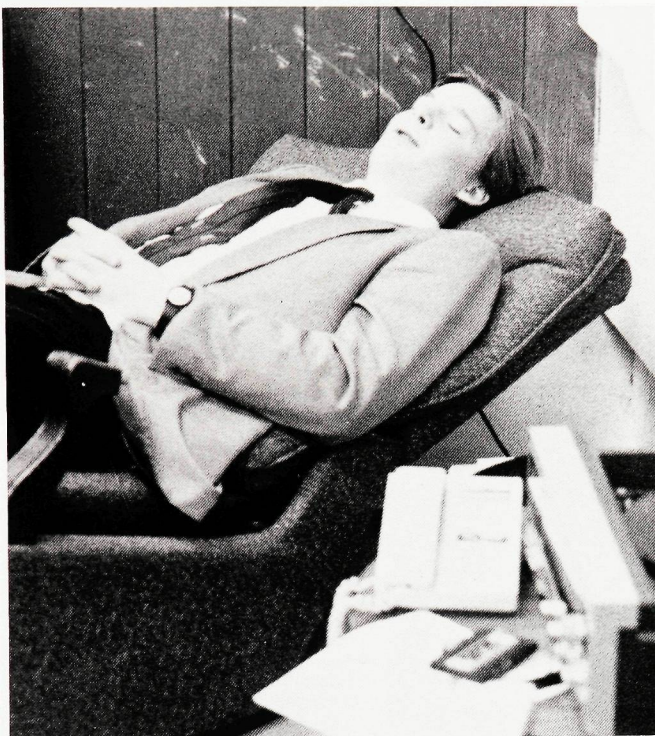

Hey roomie. How's life? Fine!! How's wife? (LT). Got you there, eh? You're 18 now. That's cool, you legal goof. We must have held the record for P.M's in the school. So what are you going to do. Spearfish in Spain. Well Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year till we meet again. Keep in touch, Sethness.

Bree Fitzgerald

What's your destiny? You can bet that wherever Bree goes, it's going to be a good time. What's the cheapest way to travel? Just take a trip to the other side of the tracks! Cool breeze blew us away with her artsy-fartsy talents and her love for the wild side. A botanist by nature. Remember - all nighters, hysterical glass burglars - Party! This is a dream right? Never change cause the landslide can't bring you down. XO T.W., R.W., C.T.

Steve Girardin

Monch, how's your hockey career, early retirement, I understand. Has Drummondville got a Macdonald (nerd town!). The cops bust you lately! Relax on the Cabaret opession. I heard they came out with a new transmission the 550mgw Yeah! I hope you enjoy working in bananas factories. G.B.

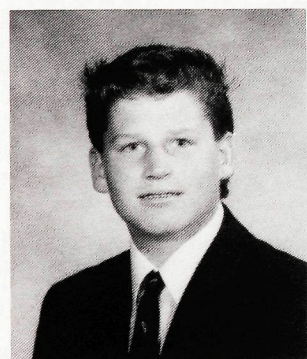

Gretchen Fitzgerald

Inner Space in an octangal tower, five miles from the sea he lives quietly with his books and doves all walls are white, some days he wears green spectacles, not reading riffling the pages - low sounds of birds and their flying holding to the use of familiar objects in the light that is not quite - Tom Raworth

Elizabeth Gallery

Lizard, hey little buddy! Four long crazy years. How did you ever survive? Hand in hand we did some serious damage. Three big ghosts, The Inn, Gem, and snacking on Croiffan Z. Let's go check out the view sur le balcon. Where is that stand? "She's a bear!" The everlasting furball, and the hard work put into the B.C.S. campus. To you and "Boot Hill" forever. Thanks for putting up with all my P.P. love Sammy, SM, JD, TW, BF PV, and the boys of the B.B.C.

Charles Goodwin

Hello. I don't know. Whatever. No 32 - Get him Chuck! Will it be the Montreal Canadiens or the P.G.A.? Champlain will have to do for now. Vive le francais! Only 98% in chemistry - what happened to the other 2%? The pint line. Dooling and the boys. Look up, then straight ahead for it is in the stars where the dreams grow and in time become reality.

Natalie Goulet

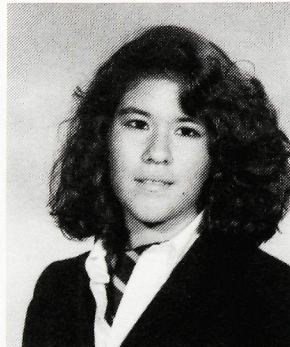

Hi, I'm Nathalie. Oh . . . , so you're the girl with the SAAB 900 TURBO. Does 822-0808 ring a bell? FUDGE!!! I'm soo . . . mad! (Smile . . .!) You've on my cruise! Does the Sherriff have a girlfriend? (Hmmm . . .) Japanese tea with my future roomy! The Gillard 2nd gossip master. Bub! Je m'excuse mais tu es sur ma montre. Nath, you should go into boxing, you have a hard left hook. No, I'm going to be a Corporate Lawyer. Anthony says bye-bye! (Hint, hint). You're a great chic, don't loose your enthusiasm. Much love, Hugh, Lise, Lids and Marty.

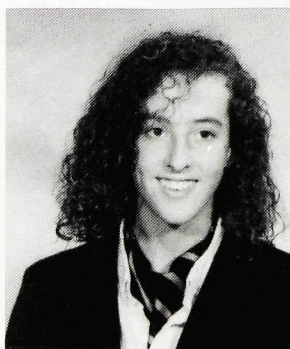

Hester Grodde

If you compare the city with the Forest, you may begin to wonder why it's man who goes around classifying himself as The Superior Animal. Benjamin Hoff

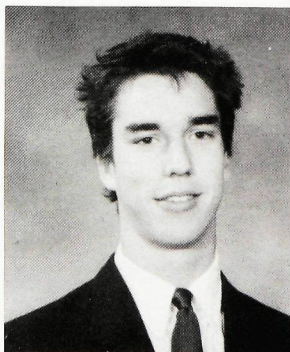

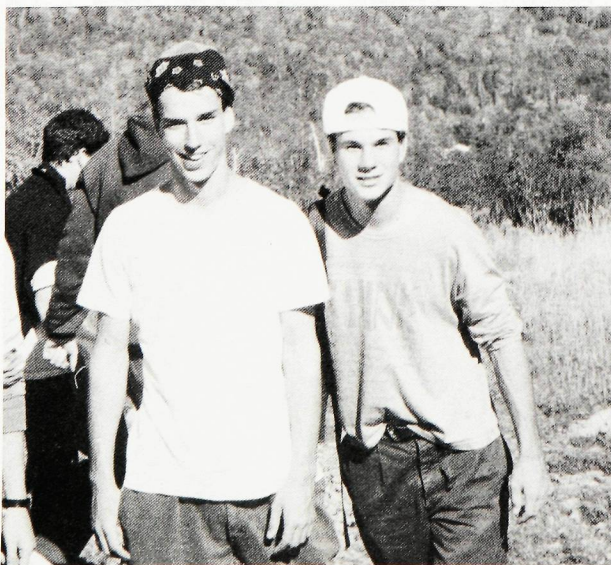

Julie Guenkel

Hey bud, how's your foot? Who were you chasing? Arrete - where did it go, St. Jean Baptiste? Make yourself a recording. We're trapped in a bathtub. Lifejackets, flares, we're drowning!!! Are you still thinking? Have you talked to your moose lately? What was his name? Air raid, the Pam, nice doors. What a headache. Why didn't we stay? Get rid of D. Take a pill? It's been close. Love Lin.

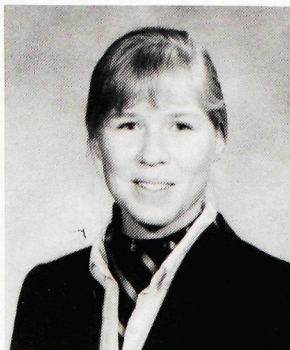

Kate Hallward

I am a . . . I am a . . . I am a . . . I really don't know. The Motel Lennoxville pool, campfires in the woods, the clock beat me! India, Guess ads, poignee de porle, hey, we've got all night. Snip, snap, slice, coffee. Isn't stress exhilarating? Carnival '88, Whose Life Is It Anyway? Exactly. Click, wump, mirror images, mud sliding, rotate man, turtle full of talk(?), sleepwalking and bedtime stories. Tiddle-y-pom, said Pooh, and climbed back into bed.

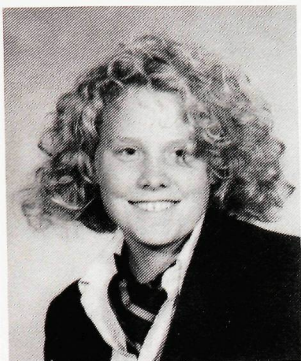

Chris Hamelin

Mene Gean the killing machine. It's been a long john's 5 years, but you made it! "Perfect" "Where are the maids when you need them on stage?" "Not in the news, know what I mean Gean!!!" "Howie!!!" "No, no I'm not being sarcastic" "Gaaaiters" "Chris, get that shoe off your head!" Come back to skinny dip gardens, and till we meet again, cruise the big blue bug. Chris would OBVIOUSLY like to thank his family for their support. See you at the club. B.B.C.

Christy Hill

"Mike wants one, Christy wants one but the landlady and houseparent say: NO ELEPHANTS!" The memories: She laughs - 100 hours, BU excursions, dancing in a blizzard, sprum, grads, Mike who? Beat the clocks. "I can't remember, I can't recall, I can't remember anything at all." Bowing down to the porcelain God. Lovers. Psst Olie, the funky chicken and the sin twins always get caught. To the guys I leave my wrestling abilities and to my friends a thinking thought and a fabrication. Bye Bye Lard A..

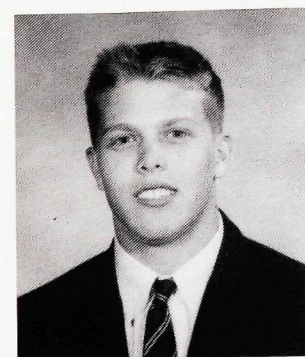

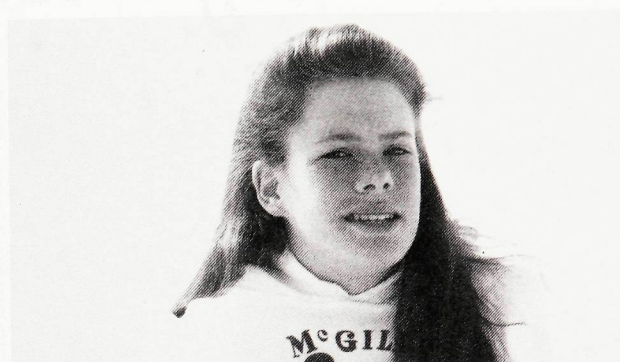

Satoshi Ikeyama

Hey Satoshi, what are you doing on the soccer field, go get the oranges and don't forget the medical box with the white tape. This overaged sixth former came to discover life in Canada from overseas. This seemingly shy and quiet kid was really a wild and crazy guy - Never doing his prep and dressing disrespectfully I hope it doesn't affect your future. See ya at Old Boys. Chuck.

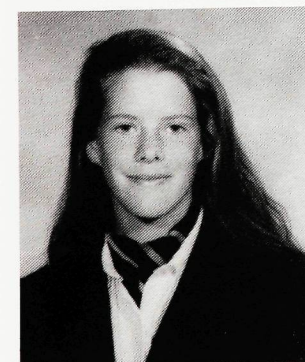

Naoko Ishikawa

What a year!! Late lights, tuck, junks, starvation diets. You deserved an award for being the most valuable couch warmer in Gillard House. How many nights have you vegetated there? Remember the long talks we had after bedtime? They were great! I'll always love you roomie and I'll never forget you. You are too special. Love, E.T. phone home.

Phil Jalbert

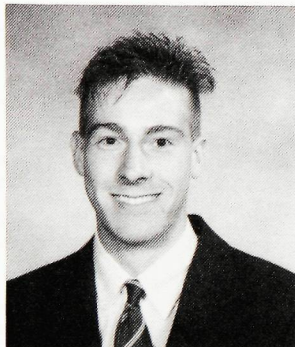

Two years sounds like a long time, but with Phil it seemed like a blur. You were more than I hoped for, Romeo, Athlete, and Scholar, all in one?? Summer 88 showed Phil's party potential. Phil, Plan B QB? Disco Master. "Who get's more women?", "Jean Drap-eau", "Primo" We will all miss Phil and wish him the best of luck. Phil would like to thank his family for all their kind support. Thanks guys!! See you at the Club The B.B.C.

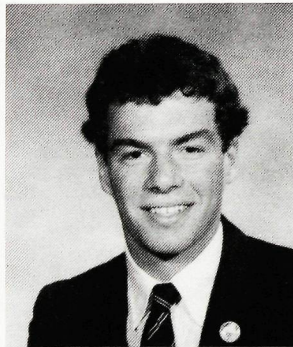

Sharon Johnston

I already graduated from kindergarten! SHH! I'm hunting rabbits. Joe, only another neurotic academic would understand. Thanx. Mitch we'll write a book on the meaning of life as applies to the dining hall. I love U. My exercise freak! diet, diet! weight room anyone? Riverview . . . only 6000 laps to go! Of course I study on Friday nights. Don't you? Thanx C.M., J.B., N.I., M.P., and my family for putting up with me. I WON'T GROW UP!!

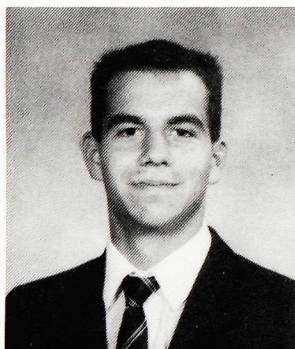

Greg Knapen

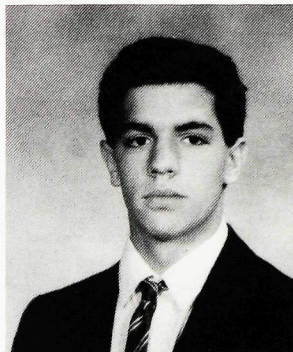

Martin Lamoureux

EZE LIFE. Are you going to get up to turn the alarm off?! The well prepared water fanatic. I don't think there has been a day where Marty hasn't talked about surfing! Marty not doing prep - that's the attitude. All of us know that you set the academic standards in North. All your buddies are confident that you'll succeed someday! Thanks for all the tang and M&M's! Remember as long as there is sun, surf and sand, there will be Marty! Chink

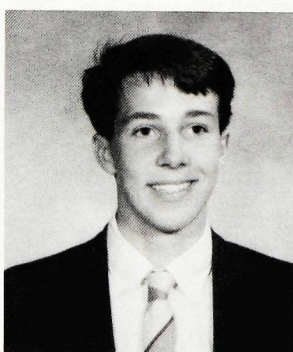

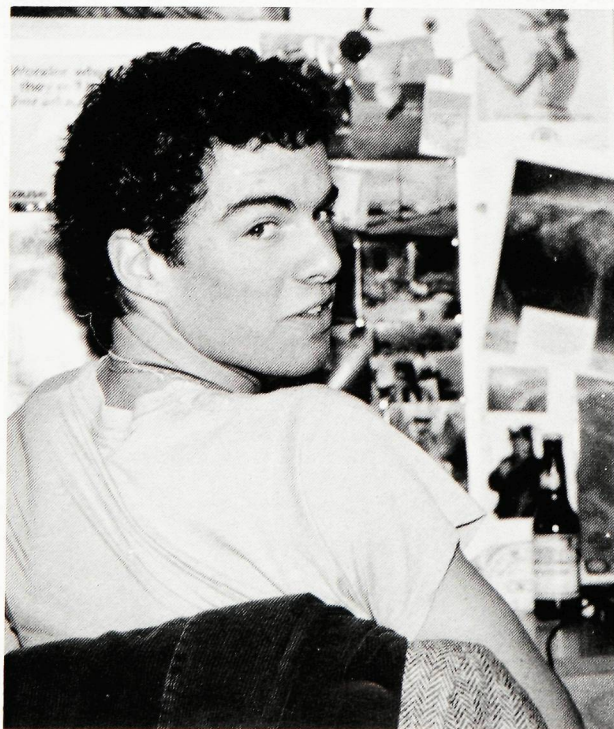

Mike Larochelle

Too much coffee not enough sleep. Written to Christel yet? How's Chem? I love spares. Are you getting nerdy with me? Should I whale on you now or later? Are Matt and Mike trading places? "Not enough stuff! We need more stuff!" Famous last words: do everything you don't have to now. Prep can wait! How's Shishkabob? Next year your mom does the baking. Monique + wedding bells? The neanderthal is coming to get you! See you at Western! Later dude, it's been real!

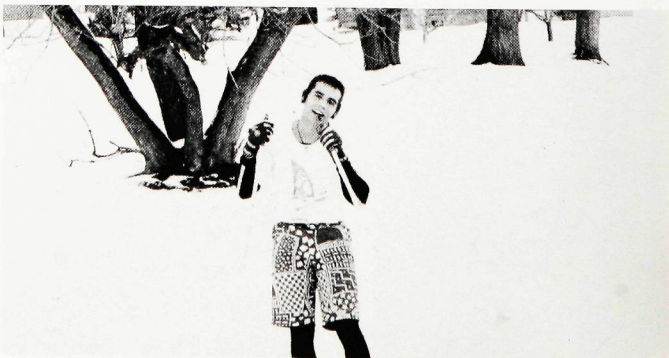

Phillippe LeBlond

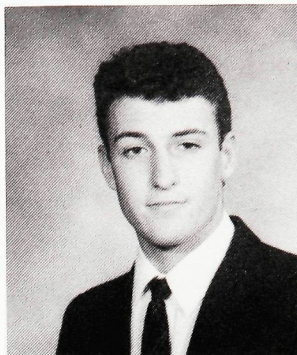

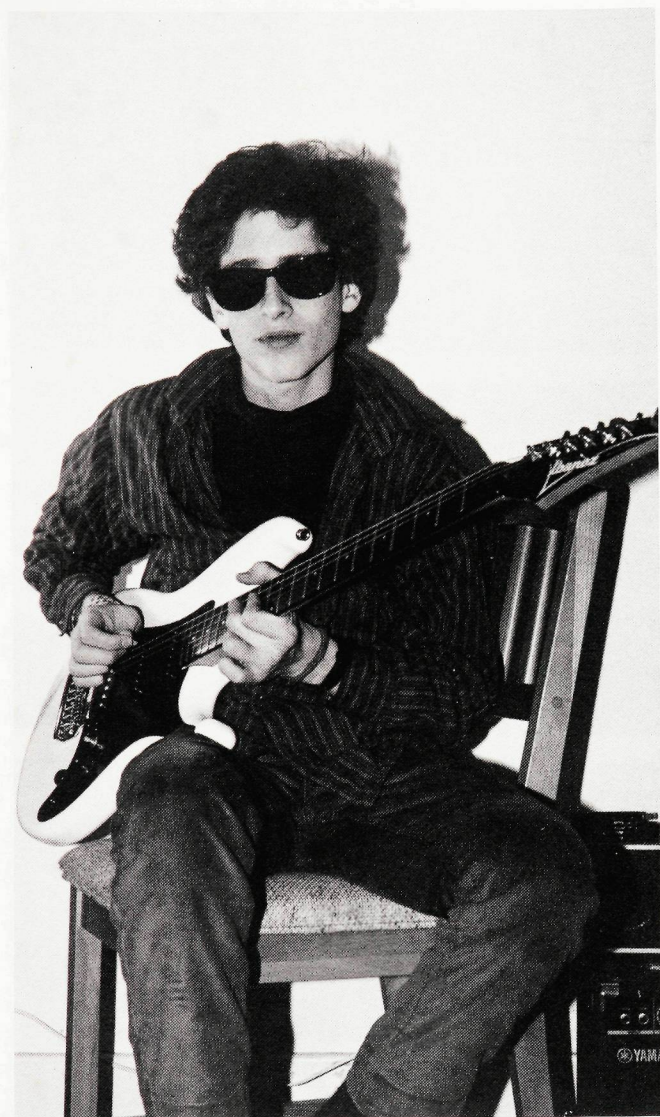

Five years ago a small boy entered the school and looked around at all the big people surrounding him. It's hard to believe that I'm one of those big people today. Since then a lot has happened - tenor blasting, breakfast with P.J., Ross House flag, common room wrecking. Many people have come, and many people have gone. I'm one of the crazy ones that has stayed.

Ian Leemhuis

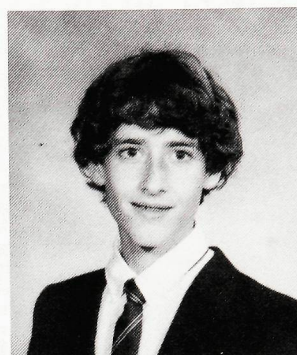

Stud! Stud! Stud! What are you, a geek? Showed a lot of dedication to the senior football team with a broken arm! Do you enjoy it when you destroy the school and house for retaliation. And always get the British house playboy upset and get laps. Finally, I suggest and advise you to visit super(???) a lot when you break your heart (over another girl!). Your party companion, Tony Wang.

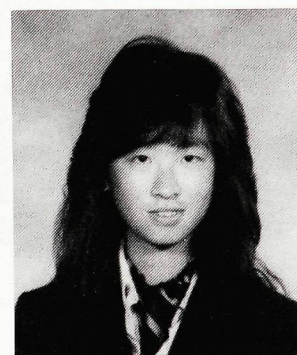

Marty Levesque

FOUR ETERNAL years go by in an instant eh Marty? Hard to believe you survived! Yes senior football (fun?!) Sarcastic? No! Flex Huge. The goon squad geek! Hey guys! Remember the Magog shaft . . . sauf! Wild evenings at the Annex ring a bell? The Caymans yeah! Natalie, just une minute. Perfect! The smelliest room ever. The hamster torch. We're not shy, we get around . . . math class. Marty, we'll all miss you and stay in touch. Your friends always, S.M., S.D., F.M., K.P., P.J., and Nute.

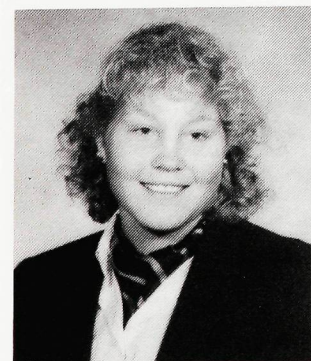

Dan Levin

If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me? I must be travelling on now, 'cause there's too many places I've got to see. But if I stay here with you, things just couldn't be the same, 'cause I'm as free as a bird now, and this bird you'll never change. - Lynard Skynard Goin' to where the water tastes like wine. - Grateful Dead

Sarah MacLaren

The first four years I was free . . . the Bog and Pugwash trips were always fun with Nick and Hugh, the day student contingent. No candy on Halloween for three big ghosts. Another pet peeve! Genisis wizards. Hugh's parents are home! Taxi wine in the basement while eating nachos and discussing Joe who? Nobody brought any? Knock, knock, knock! on the fifth year they caged me. My sentence here is over. Meet me in the tunnel. Thanks Mom, Dad, Roy, and of course, my buddies.

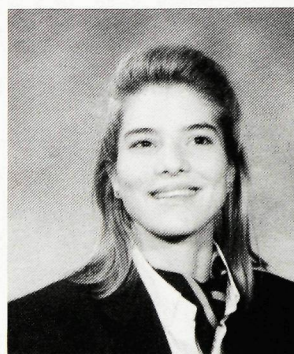

Annabelle McCall

"Man is born free, yet everywhere he is in chains." Rousseau

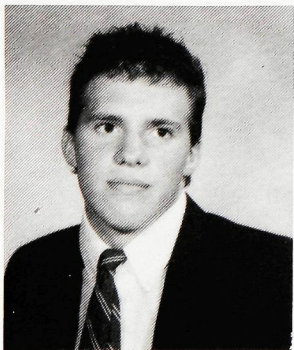

Dave McDougall

McMoron came to B.C.S. in fifth form. Horndog reached puberty and then immediately went to grad. "Don't make fun of me guys." remember Jill and Jill. "Mcpuke, are you feeling alright?" "Dave when were you born?" "I don't know - ask the bouncer at Bog's." "What do you mean guys, I've seen a full moon." Thanks a lot Mom and Dad, Sam and Earl. Dad, if there is one thing I learned it is to keep my . . . up and always bust a gut. See you at the club, "Grizzly Adams". the B.B.C.

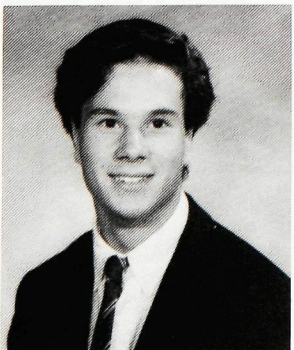

Samantha McGrath

Sam McGrath, Mag, Tur#, and Tab. Where have all her $'s gone? Two long years hold many fond memories. As she flew into the sun she met Doug, worshipped, JAH, got attacked by Beatty, and romanced blue light. Come and snuggle. Doing the things that she wants to. Thanks Mom, Dad, - T - and Mrs. P. I'll never forget you buddies, CS, LG, TW, SM, LC, BF, ET, PV, and you studs of the B.B.C. "Those friends thou hast, and their adoption tried. Grapple to thy soul with hoops of steel."

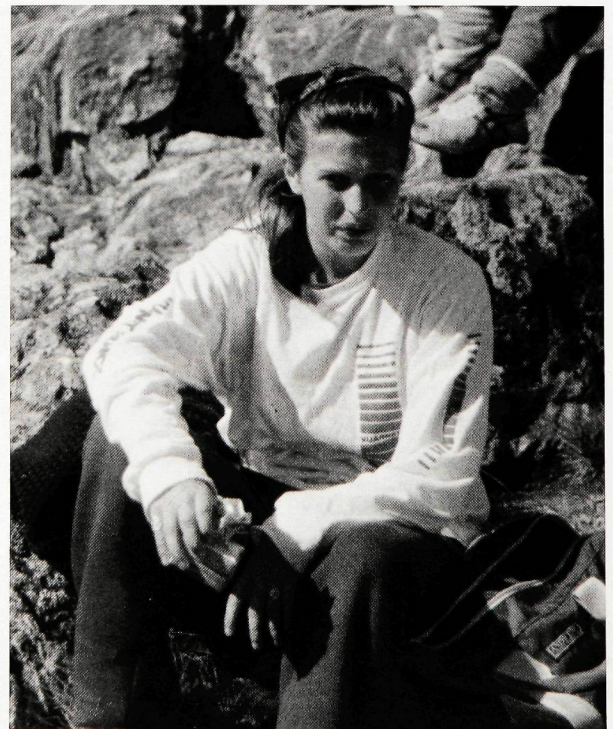

Fritz McKellar

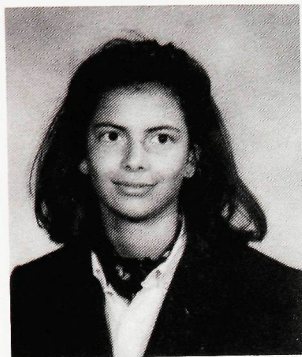

Tuff Break, no mo' football. Race car driving eh? So far it don't look to good. You'll never amount to anything nerd. You can forget ever driving my car. Good memories of the squash court - and how big are they? On to Cincinnati, the future Mrs. McKellar? The Bengals don't have a chance - the Bears kick. I think you and chief big cheeks have something going. Please wait for me to start the party life at Ottawa U. Your Cayman bum chum.

Rob Meder

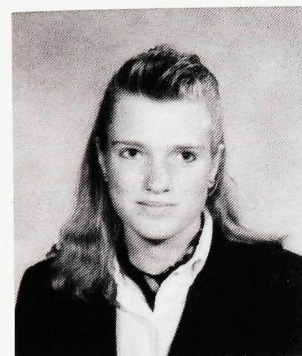

Hacksaw!! Congratulations on your accomplishments in senior football. It was a lot of fun cruising in the 16V. "Remember the car stereo can never be too loud!!" Co-creator of driven by speed (C.H). Wild water skiing in the tidal waves. "Roberto, #92 is out of place." "Guys do you like my boots!" We all know you are the real GQ representative of the B.B.C. Rob would like to thank his family for all their help and support. See you at the club! The B.B.C.

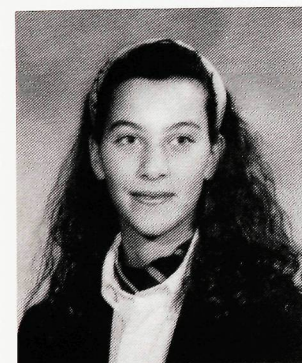

Silole Menezes

Slow down you move too fast . . . Hey Lole, how's Leonard lately, still dying? Midnight strolls with silent mothers! The world's not that big! Mora, if I don't see you, I'll be on the island. "Magic rings and our rebellious acts" good, bad, lucky lady. Christy Don't go chasing white rabbits or little men catching butterflies . . . Lole put on your coat. Exaggeration!! Major momologue. "You don't understand . . ." the place and the picnics. Reinactment. Party time = history exam studying. Oc Oc time. Mothers little helper - no your neighbour and friend, Gab.

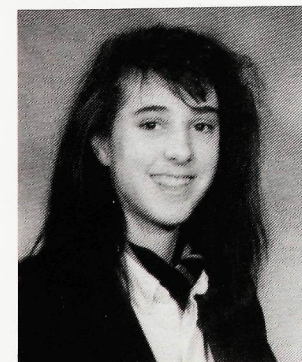

Caroline Mitchell

Shy little Vermonter: now you can't shut her up! Ex-couch potato. Avery 2. "Never hope too hard dreamer girl, you may wish it into oblivion." Favourite passtime - watching runners. "Red". Carnival '88 . . . '89? Life as applies to the dining hall. Thou knowest. Light-dark imagery. French class. Little black book. Old boys '88. Empty box, lets go! Provincials and modeling. Roar! One last word to torture - THIGHS (smile) G.B. I hope the frustration was worth it! Grad!?!?

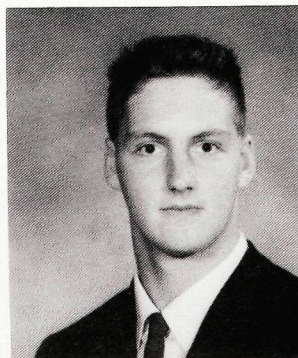

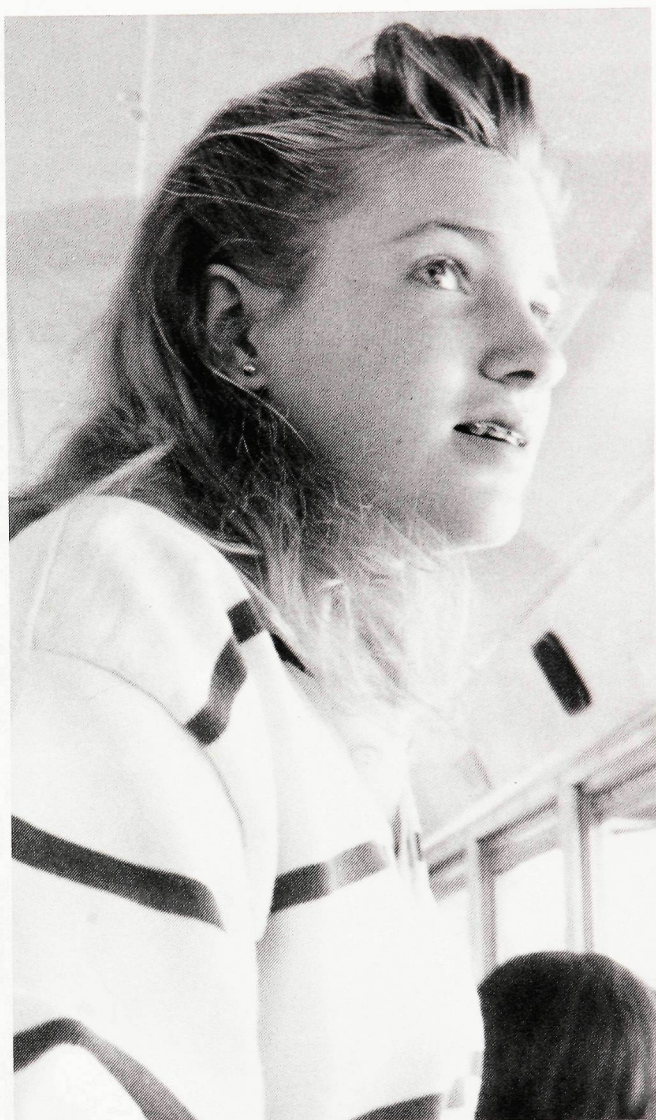

Anne-Marie Nawar

Hi George! 27 years old? Anne-Marie Nawar we are ashamed of you. Are you sick? Getting 50 hours on top of that! Definately insane. And what about the guy in the little red convertible? Her blue eyes flash "like an Egyptian" and she says "Fred more lemonade". Her abilities in sports - 5th place in gymnastics!! INCREDIBLE!!! Just ask Anne about la Societee des Alcool, she knows! Be careful, brain cells don't come back! LOVE Marie-Helene and Christy.

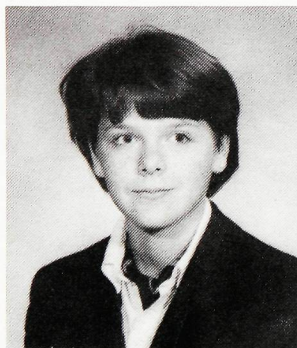

Mora Nickerson

The love Goddess strikes again . . . once upon a time we almost ran away until we realized that "success is the best revenge" and that is when we decided to rule the world. Practise some self-control please . . . resist the temptations. Just ask us about positive procrastination. "What's the topic of the day?" We will have to practise on our sneaking techniques. Take care and take it easy women - Christy. P.S. Hills are better than mountains. My roommate and my friend. EXAGGERATION! Monologue. The three amigos porridge at midnight. No, you can't have any more! YNOT - GUYS - can't love them, can't shoot them. I'll buy you an oozy! Gabrielle

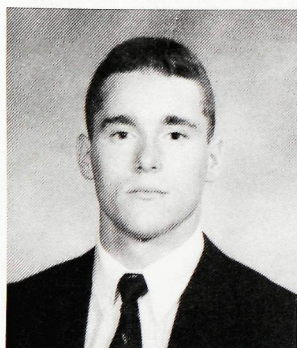

Tom Nutten

- the art of German engineering. This line best describes Tommy. Tom will best be remembered for his great talent on the football field, being in my opinion our MVP. Yea Newt! Tom put a lot into the school and it seems he got a lot out of it (house captain, dining hall). I know that all of Tom's classmates and teammates have a lot of respect for him. We'll all Tommy next year but we know we can find him in Magog (probably at La Brise). Best of luck big guy. RM

Monique Oliff

"Most of what I really needed to know about life I learned in kindergarten. Share everything; play fair, don't hit people, put things back where you found them, clean up your mess. Don't take things that aren't yours, say sorry when you hurt someone, warm cookies and milk are good for you . . . When you go out into the world watch for traffic and stick together." Even now it's still best to hold hands and stick together!

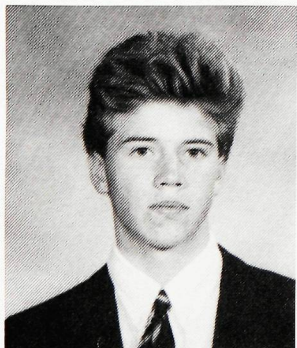

Keith Olivella

What a hick! The farm boy from Chateauguay, those were the good old days. Yee haw! Last year the 422 math master, this year the sickest little puppy ever. Keep your hands off those gummy bears. You were the #1 wrestlemaniac. "head banger" from McNaughton but you had a weak skull. Yes sir, Mr. injury himself. Are you still chasing the B.B.B.'s? Keep in touch or I'll kill you! The Nute. Same for jer (GT) and me brandy.

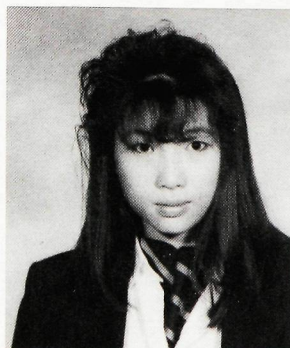

Yvonne Pong

Is there an ancient Chinese saying about looking like you killed my dog? Pillows flying through the air. There are places for people who walk around with pigs tied to their backs. Tell me about Finnie! Living through melodramatic songs and noise. Sour stuff! Who's that guy on the third floor? Yoga all night long. I'll say bye now. We're just two lost souls swimming in a fish bowl year after year - Pink Floyd Love S.M.

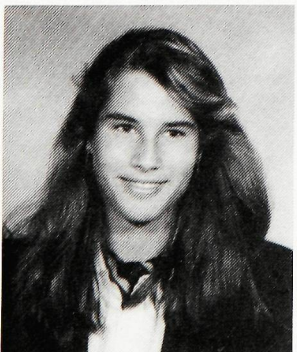

Kevin Peacock

Psycho, Piko. It's been real. From a bad boy, to head of Carnival, and finally to the rap and dip master we know today. "Hugh did I have a w . . ." "Kev quit socializing." "Kev did you learn that on the ship." "Hey guys should I get my haircut." "Don't forget Bogard's 720 or D.D." "No, No, I can't risk it." "Kahlua and milk." Always dream like we dreamed at the Oratory. Thank's Mom and dad, I listened. No more puking in a holy place. See you at the club! The B.B.C

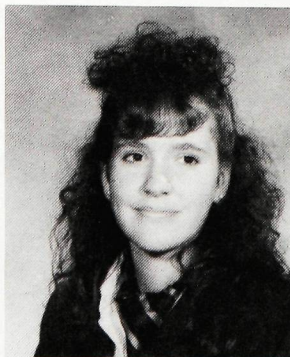

Linda Rodger

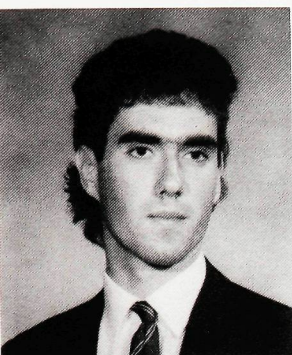

Hey bud! Do you want to buy a Pinto? No really we're OK. Where are the bathrooms anyway? Kusumuk, what a headache. I'm going crazy!!! Don't worry be happy. Why didn't we stay? Tourists I guess. Zoui Zoui, it's here? Forget it I'm leaving. Go, Now! Don't forget to take your vitamins. Especially E and C. Have you set any fires recently? No we're not pyromaniacs. We just want to go skiing, or maybe take a ride in a boat. Or a 300-2x whatever! Love (???) Jul!

Marie-Hélène Roberge

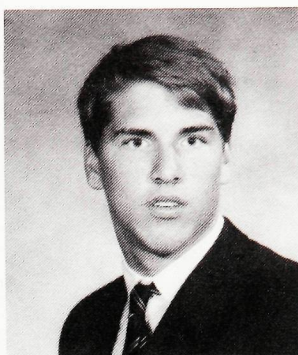

The loudest, most obnoxious french pepper who ever lived, just kidding!! This girl knows more than the meaning of the word work, this little party animal is just as bad as everybody but she doesn't get caught (50). Remember this: "Je m'excuse de t'apprendre que pas tous les gars sont en amour avec toi." You must remember I told you so many times euh!! But now you've settled down. M.R.E., french orals, partners in life. Love you, A.-M.N. P.S.: Paranoia, get help. Love you, Jerome.

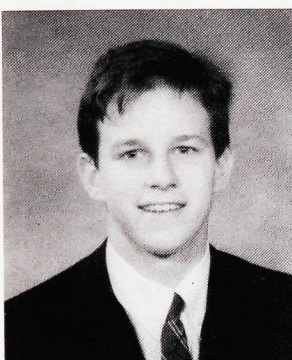

ANDRE ROY

Yeh! did he really die? Yeah babe, I was juggling the football, and they got lucky consequence it got shattered. What does Andre spell when it's mixed up? A NERD. Was your knee an excuse, or were you just too scared to play against us in basketball. Don't forget the ultimate definition of skiing 'bush whacking' Ahh! a cliff. It went cra-crack. They call him 'HANDS'. Michelle ma belle (beatles), sudden interest, and the hurricane devastates Andre. Mike (right angle) gets the goods.

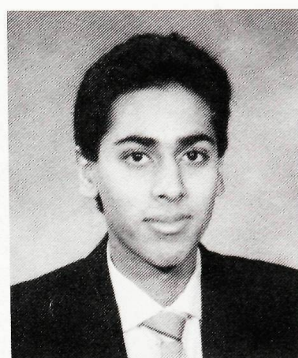

Dominic Scholl

Although I have not known this dude for very long, I have learned that Dom has great respect for people around him. He sure is not as strong as his brother Stephan. He sure is not the best o.l.b but he is for sure a great guy to hang out with. Like you say 'I'll wait t'ill I'm in Montreal to . . . ' truly J.C

Hugh Scott

Super Ecrasse! It's been real. "Chouge, are your parent's home?" "Yes, but you can party wiff me anytime, Wow!" "Mom, I swear, the dog puked there." "Hugh why are you here, it's Day 4." "Chouge, pense tu que . . ." "Ah ya ya ya." "Stingy B _ _ _" "Sam it's time to call Beets the smurf." "Kev don't forget the cathedral." "Remember the red dot special" "Hugh, why did you get suspended?" Hugh would like to thank his family for all their support. See you at the club! The B.B.C.

Baljit Sethi

Yo roommate how's life. Are you still being nerdy by studying extremely late and not during prep, and not waking up anymore. Balj man stop going on G watching. You should study at decent times. I remember your good old pile of P's They're still home! Don't worry I'll teach you some skiing but don't kill yourself on the first race! I hope you can take the pain of heavy metal - nothing much. Sethi don't be like Wang. No SUPER but BCS spirit; think about it dude. Champs.

John Siggins

"So as you push off from the shore
Won't you turn your head once more
And make your peace with everyone
For those who choose to stay
Will live just one more day
To do the things they should have done

Gabrielle Slowey

Is that an EXAGGERATION? Eat your poetry . . . The walking babble machine. She could save your life some day - SUPER LIFEGUARD!! Don't you wish you could live in your imagination? I am not who I am, am I? Blank . . . and then I think! Have a wild life xx Christy Hey Gab, remember: typical boarding school scene! Gab, wake up. Can I borrow . . . Don't touch the bed. It's been great - let's do it again next year Mora. How do I love thee, let me count the chins. Draw a picture - paint it black. Out of your time - you were born for the 60's. Leonard hiding from your monologues! Maybe he's been drinking OC-OC or Caribic at 'the place'. If you ever find him, give him some . . . lolé.

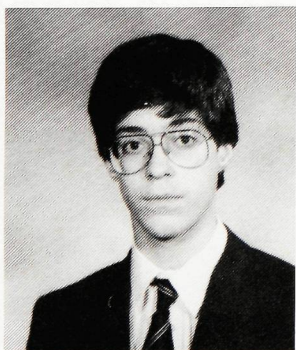

Stephanie Smith

"What was I going to say?" Our Mississippian, big-belted, out-bounded, natter fiend from the big T has such willpower, "I'm so glad I didn't . . . last night!" Adventures with D.I. turning us into cows with missions and pigs in Calvin Klein ads. Always remember Rob, Nik, and you in the little white car speeding to the tune of St. Elmo's and that it's your turn to be beaten by the clock with that hydrogen peroxide filler that emerges after hours. "When the sunsets' glow just away from you, you'll no longer know if any of this was really true at all" - The Cure

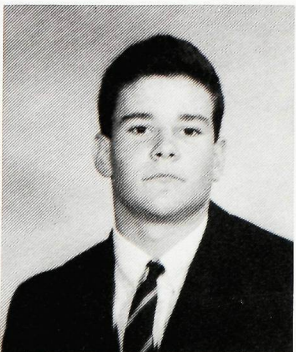

Julie Sparling

The only female ice hockey player at B.C.S., I know ice hockey is her second life (she told me). Last year she was in I.H.A. and she enjoyed it so much that this year she might be on the team. Although I haven't had a chance to see her playing on that slippery rink, I believe she always tries her best. All I can say is "She is marvelous . . ." but that Greek always scared me purposely. Good luck in seventh form and in your search for a better roomie. Maria Chick

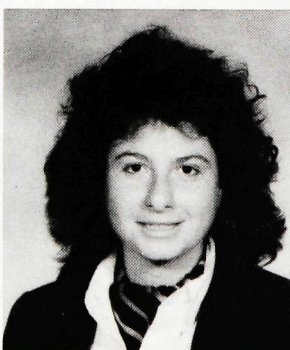

Sebastien Stradavinidis

NERD! What do you mean, NERD?! Fisher! Chess! Maybe someday you'll understand! Denany, L.P., T.T., All the nice arguments! What a life! I hope you'll remember! Good Luck in chess! Psycho!

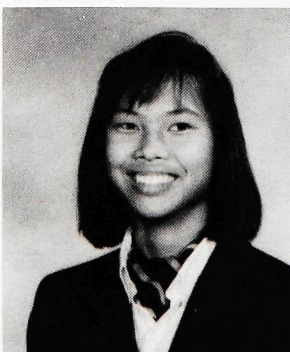

Andrew Touzé

The physics master from Miami entered BCS quietly and almost left in a straight jacket after seeing snow for the first time. Andrew is now considered as manly as any other stud around. I taught Touzé how to wrestle with a few minor difficulties, 3rd year he was placed on Dining Hall (a high position in the eyes of BCS students) Touzé has worked his way up through the years being taught how to ski by JC and earning rookie of the year. Good Luck Touzé xx Christy

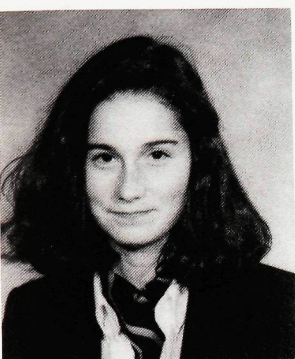

Elda Tabourian

"We are gonna be on a diet, right?" It is very hard for me to count how many times we had this conversation. Useless though it may have been. NO CHOCOLAT! But, you are as sweet as chocolat. Elda, you are always too kind. You often told me that you wanted to change your personality. NEVER CHANGE! Because you are already great! Keep caring. Love ya always, roomie . . .

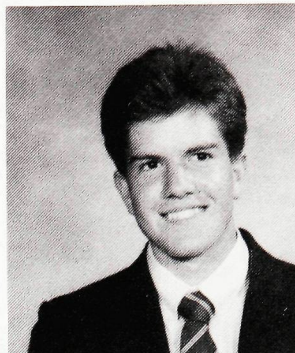

Cyndy Toyota

Did you get off the boat? Knock, knock, knock. Wake up Cynda-roo. This muted little cowgirl was wicked fast but unfortunately not fast enough to beat the clock. Always remember that when you down and out, just plug in a hit of C.B. and every little thing will be alright. "Oh very young what will you leave us this time, you're only dancing on this earth for a short while." - Cat Stevens. I'll miss you Cyn-Steph.

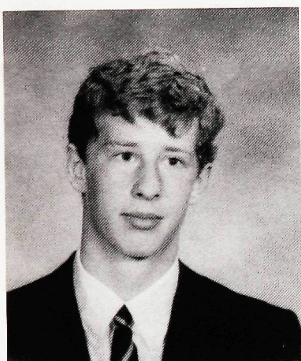

Jennifer Trower

Halfway between Pooh's house and Piglet's house was a Thoughtful Spot where they met sometimes when they had decided to go and see each other, and as it was warm and out of the wind they would sit down there for a little and wonder what they would do now that they had seen each other. Bye bye Lard (!)

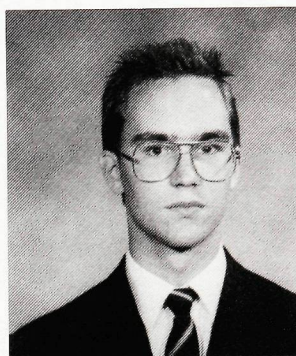

Ghaleb Turk

Peter Veillon

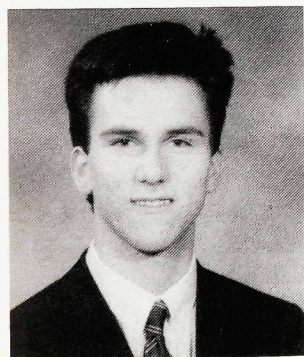

My time at B.C.S. is almost done now. I have learned so much and yet so little. To all those who have made B.C.S. so interesting, Piper says thanks.

Lucy Wild

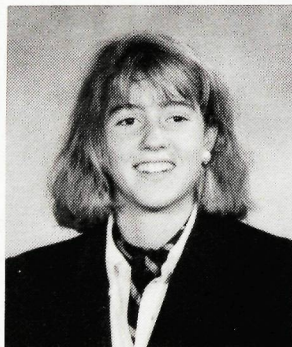

Hi Boub, this is it. You don't have to put up with me anymore. Suck up to anyone lately. Ah want a hug? Friends forever. Me, starve myself? Can I have that chocolate please. Prefect, if nobody comes back or maybe house parent - yeah that's it. Look at it this way, you'll be a veteran senior soccer bench warmer. Oh to he — in a hand basket, oh that's not nice talk. Just remember that I love you and will miss you very much. Love me ... ESTEBAN p.s. memories last forever.

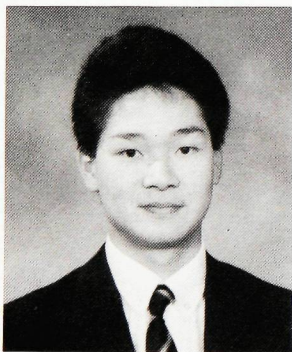

Irene Wong

"When you come to the edge, you think you have come to the end, but really you've only come to part of the beginning. The beginning is the start for anyone. You will never come to the end but keep on going."

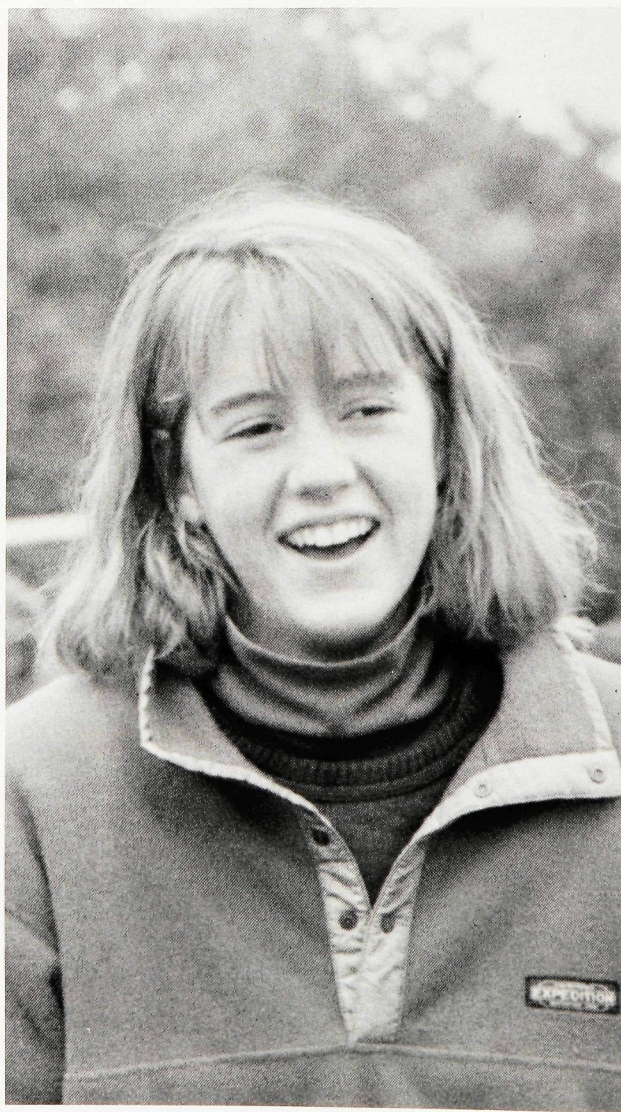

Tori Wright

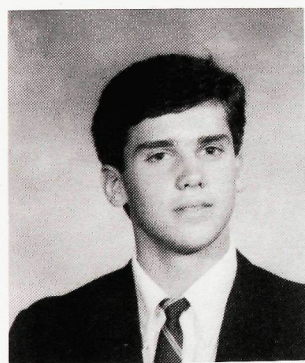

Morning, rabbit! How about some tunes? Echoes from the pleasuredome, bouncing off countless memories. K-town parties, indecision at every turn, except when it came to dining. Tor will remain forever faithful to her only love; She brought her strength, her style, and her hip to us, entertaining the late night crowd with comic relief and bizarre noises. Fuzzy but solid memories of good times and better friends. Night night, little kitten. Love, BF, SM2, RW, SC.

Tony Yang

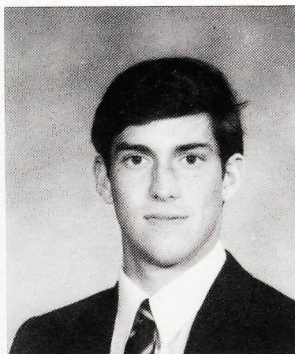

Hey, how's it going? How are those velly, velly beautiful, blue eyed American blond-haired girls. Now I understand after knowing Tony for over a year why he hates being Chinese. For one, he hates studying, and two he can't stop thinking about girls. Thats probably why he joined Sr. Football, tried out for the hockey team and even joined rugby. What a guy and what determination. Best wishes from you roomy, Ian.

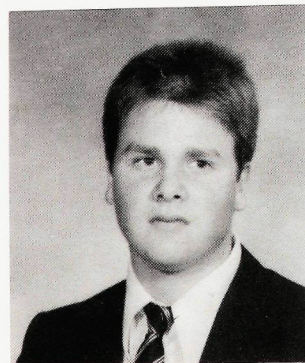

Jeffrey Bishop

Jeff Bishop sentimental? No! The fat little Galty became a white and purple pal. Jeff strutted into B.C.S. in fifth form enslaving the female population with his suave looks. Jeff and L.L. Bean have become synonymous. Academically Jeff was . . . there, but athletically Jeff was at all times present coming in the top ten in the cross-country for the past three years, and showing off his stallionistic moves in soccer, hockey, and tennis. Remember North Hatley, summer of '85. To put it in young Bishop's words: Togetherness will bring us together. Stressed? Murph! Lyman.

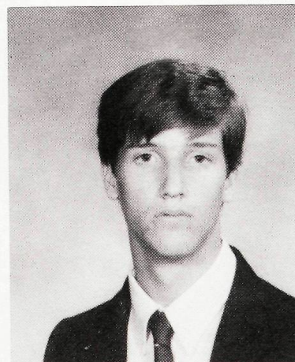

Don Booth

"I am fated to journey hand in hand with my strange hero and to survey the surging immensity of life, to survey it through the laughter that all can see and through the tears unseen and unknown." In this life having one true friend is indeed many. Thank you for being that friend. LISA

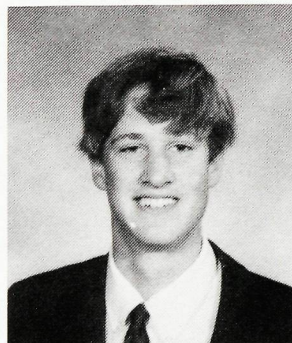

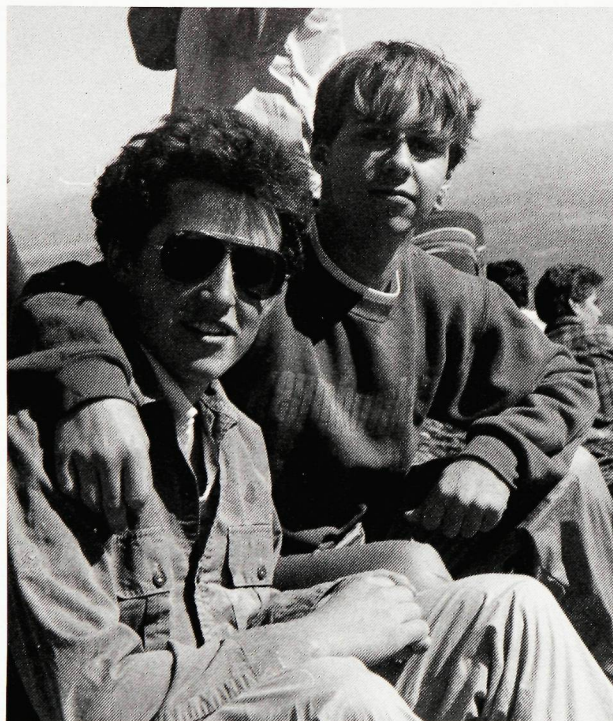

Eric Brand

"I build walls, a fortress deep and mighty, that none can penetrate, I have no need of friendship. Friendship causes pain, it's loving I disdain. I am a rock, I am an island. Don't talk of love, well I've heard the word before. It's sleeping in my memory, I won't disturb its slumber of feelings that have died, if I'd never loved, I never would have cried. I am a rock, I am an island. And a rock feels no pain, and an island never cries." Simon and Garfunkel. Never forget Eric, life is not too long - have faith! I'll be there, love ANN.

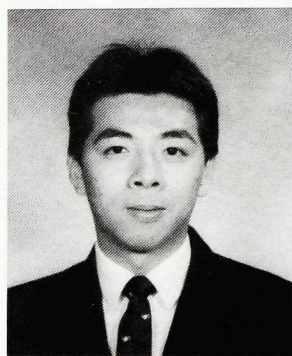

Chris Carlisle

Yesterday, upon the star, I met a guy who wasn't there he wasn't there again today, I wish that guy would go away! It's been nice not knowing you stone. NIK

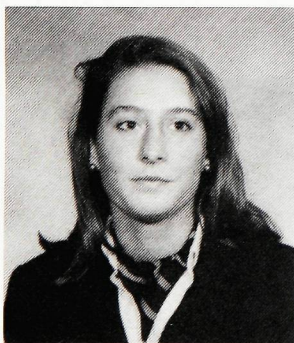

Lyman Carter

I think Theodore is a much more mature and respectable name. O.K. I'm just joking. The secret of spirit is obviously the name which made this man stand out above the rest. Do you have your wallet Lyman? Lose anything lately? Lyman really is an organized person-pshaw!!!. Congrats on making Senior Soccer buddy! Too many memories over the last ten years but don't ever forget your friend from Sherb. Lyman - will you ever beat the clock? Love Bish. P.S. Tori can't think of anything.

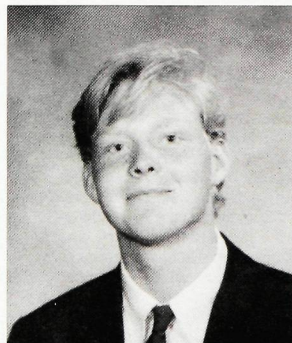

Charles Chen

The world is changing everyday, every minute, every second. The man is also changing. Charles: Don't just walk through life with nothing. Make something that lasts forever. Good luck.

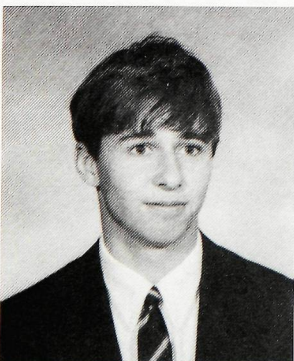

Sophie Cofman

Come join us any time in the Pleasuredome. Nothing is skin deep, Soph's compassion comes from within. Stick with her and you'll climb high and lay low . . . midnight sleepwalking, carpet cleaning, walking into apartments. Yes, I've got this travelling mood. Keep cruisin' and we'll keep having fun! However far your dreams may take you and your thoughts may drift, sit back, and remember the good times. Love Tor & Rox.

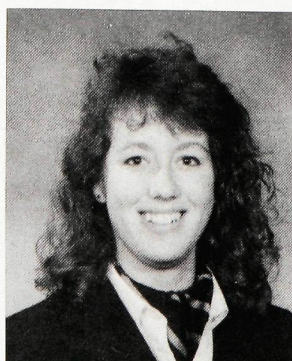

Greg Cook

Duh, yah I play football! To my big and Oafy Cookie Monster, wait a minute I know him, he's my friend! How have I survived with u for so long? Then again how could I survive without u? A growing boy needs his veggies, so does Bill-Jo-Bim-Bob. So maybe I'm not as brilliant as you hon!! "Yah, but that's a given!" No talking to ANYONE of the opposite sex!! Rule no. 648 . . . Greg Cook: destined to be filthy rich and darn good at it!!! You know I'll always love u Greg, Natasha.

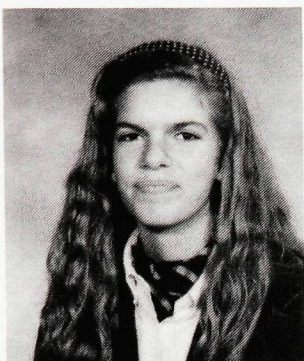

Brian Dooling

Shmooling, Dittles, Dooles, or one-eyed fooling? No. Dooling, Just Dooling. The five foot nothing, half pint, pseudo-neo-classic painter (Irwin Party), and the little hype of B.C.S. The son that Grant never had and Charlie's favourite playmate. By the way, are you a, "joker, a smoker, a midnight toker"? Eaglebrook will catch you sooner or later, so will Slim Jim, Jokum, and Anne. Well good-bye for now, but never forever little guy. We're going to miss you! (As if . . . Aaahhwooh!) CHUNKY, BISH, D.B.

Wendy Eizinger

And there would I rest and lie,
My chin in my hands, and gaze
At the grey-blue distant haze where the sea goes up to the sky . . .
And I'd say to myself as I looked so lazily down at the sea:
There's nobody else in the world, and

Bruno Enrich

A Spanish dude came to B.C.S., bringing along his charming accent and his very seductive smile. Oh Bruno, you animal. Capturing young girls' hearts (blondes especially) looking so innocent yet managing to get away with ANYTHING!. Maybe it's those eyes . . . B-ball and Squash seemed to be his only passions, to all the girl's dismay. And stupid questions? No problem, he's only Spanish! We still love you. Never stop smiling - it works wonders! Love

"Let's frighten the dragons; I'm not afraid." I said to Pooh, and I held his paw and I shouted, "Shoo! silly old dragon!" and off they flew." I wasn't afraid," said Pooh said he, "I'm never afraid with you." So whatever
 I am, there's always Pooh and Me.
 "What would I do?" I said to Pooh,
 "If it weren't for you," and Pooh said, "True, it isn't much for one, but two can stick together," says Pooh, says he. "That's how it is," says
 Pooh.

Waiting At The Window.

These are my two drops of rain. Waiting on the window-pane.

I am waiting here to see Which the winning one will be.

Both of them have different names. One is John and one is James.

John has just begun to ooze. He's the one I want to lose

James is waiting to begin. He's the one I want to win.

John is rushing down the pane. James is going slow again.

Is he going fast enough? James has found a peice of fluff.

John has hurried quickly by. James is talking to a fly.

John is there and John has won! Look! I told you! Here's the sun!

Pooh and Piglet walked home thoughtfully together in the golden evening, and for a long time they were silent. "when you wake up in the morning, Pooh," said Piglet at last, "What's the first thing you say to yourself?" "What's for breakfast?," said Pooh. "What do you say, Piglet?" "I say, I wonder what's going to happen exciting today?," said Piglet. Pooh nodded thoughtfully. "It's the same thing," he said. Silliness dans la vie!! Love BERT and STEPH.

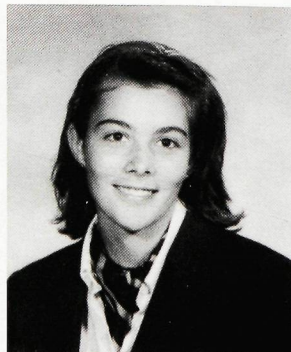

Debbie Gottdenker

It's 7:30 A.M. as Debbie desperately tries to find her way in her room. "Where's my sash?" Ten minutes later she has emptied a bottle of hairspray and succeeded, somehow, to have found her way to the door! Now the day begins. Many laugh attacks, sleep much Deb!?! Cleavage every Thursday - oh no! "I can't run for five minutes without stopping!" Mr. P's work-outs - they were worth it or were they? Parallel parking, ice cream, beer fight, boxers, and coffee. We won't forget you, how can we? Love A & B.

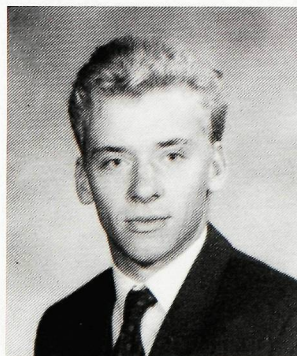

Sophie Hackett

Forget prep, let's talk. We've spent almost as many hours talking as studying Vectors. More? No, impossible! Through all my Little problems red roses, Men (boys) and borrowed clothes; who says getting hyper is all bad. Cure to school sickness: Kraft Dinner, a walk past McN and a long gossip session; it does marvels for the health. I was the first to greet you at the door now I'm the last to wave good-bye. Hope you enjoyed your stay. Love Ms. Immature.

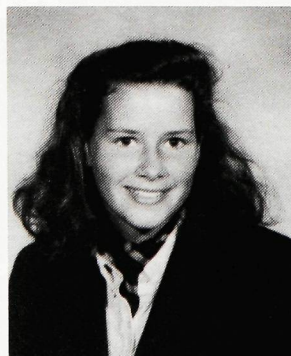

Roberta Halpenny

"How do you do nothing?" asked Pooh, after he had wondered for a long time. "Well, it's when people call out at you just as you're going off to do it, 'what are you going to do Christopher Robin,' and you say, 'oh nothing,' and then you go and do it." "Oh, I see," said Pooh This is the end, my beautiful friend - The Doors Love Nik and Steph.

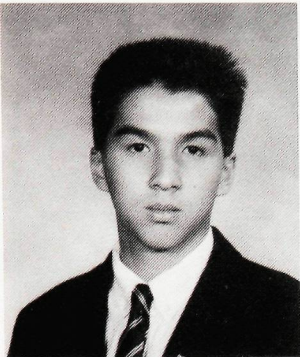

Tim Harms

"Miles from home and taking his time." With his accent and British slang Tim added something very unique to BCS. This Brit, relaxed and mellow, always had something interesting to say and an opinion different from everyone else. You will be missed but not forgotten. Peter.

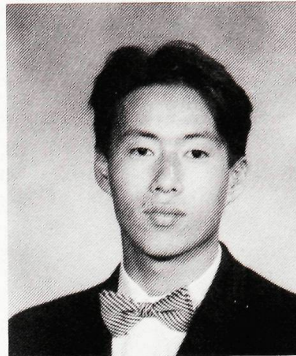

Anne Heenan

We've been from the lowest of the low to cloud #532 all in search of the ideal. The ideal what? Our Suspicious Minds may never know! Metamorphosis is the key word, which brought ups, downs, big problems and LIFTLE problems. But the incurable romantic will remain forever. And if the trees, snow and walls had ears we would be in big trouble! Dream of stars and roses. The yellow birdie has already gone; it's high time we flew the coop. Love FC.

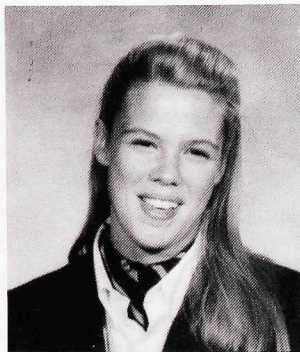

Brian Ho

College Bound, All those late nights talking, it's hard getting up!! Brian's motto is "Blow it off, hit the sack!!". Brian combines just the right mix of sleeping with the rigorous habit to study! Ha! Ha! Brian, are you still in love with Jessica? Brian, are you here for the weekend? It's your turn to get the yogurt this week! What tie are you wearing today? Thanks for all those times you've cheered me up! Master are you so psyched for break? Redneck

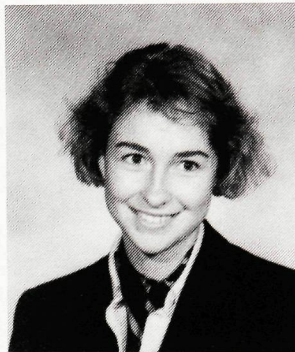

Alfred Ho

Alf ordering Champs again? Taking a weekend again? You and Brian were the funniest cousins I have ever seen. You had arguments, fights all the time and you even try to get your cousin's girlfriend!!

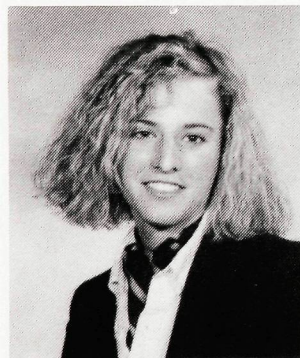

Natasha Hugessen

You are not nice, so tell me about your life, then again. It doesn't matter I'll love you always. You really don't think I was going to leave you for Julia do you, then again, she is cute. You have made my life worthwhile. We got through the hard times and we had created a lot of good times. I'll always remember you, love, Greg.

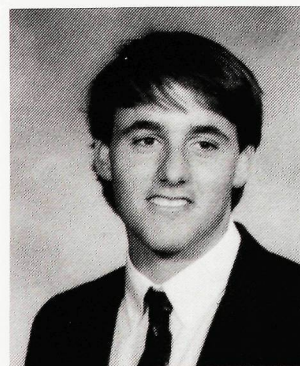

Lisa Hurtle

You've done a lot of growing in the past three years - thank-you for letting me grow with you. "As hate, if hate be perfect, casts out fear, then love, if love be perfect, casts out fear." D.B.

Jennifer McGillivray

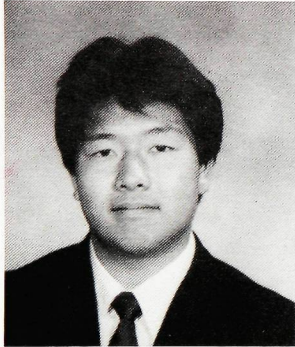

AAAGH! - OH that? It's OK it's only Jen. Hola Bruja! Yes, Jen, you look fine. How many were there this year? Beat the clock anyone? Way to play soccer chick! Chem again? Smut novel #587 or are you past that one? This year was great even though you use all the hot water, blast the stereo, don't let me sleep, pound on the bathroom door and all the little things that make you a "wonderful far-out wild roommate!! Luv Ferg.

Hugh Notman

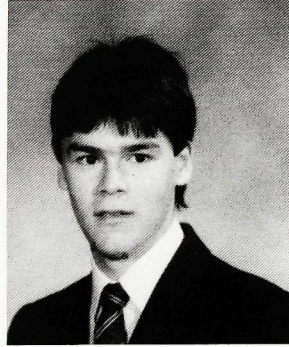

Hugh honored us with his presence in fifth form. Cleanliness was Hugh's middle name . . . sometimes. Hugh came to B.C.S. as a puddy, long-haired rasta from Bermuda where he claimed the saltwater cleaned his hair - sure Hugh. Capturing the hearts of young women with his Rambo looks (J and J). Although Hugh now has a (large) ego, he is still a good guy and will never fight against you but will also never fight with you. Hugh is indifferent. Hugh is, for his looks, quite an intellect. "I hate this country. It's so . . . cold!" Lyman

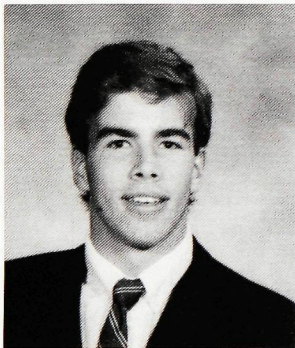

Yasu Oshita

Congratulations! You finally got your credit card. But don't lose it. A member of the Asian connection. Three years of friendship. It is very hard to express it. Senior soccer is the only crease we were on together for 3 years. Yasu's ball! Whenever you said it, the plays will be scored by you! Whenever, you go next year, please remember our friendship between us! Good luck next year! The best left-wings! AH.

First of all, I'd like to thank the school for the past few years. And now that's over with, I'd like to pause for a moment of silent recall to the primrose sitcoms of life. Safe! I do believe that Turk has been taking steroids. Well then laddies, no, not ladies, we mustn't forget those remarks in those all too exhilarating English courses. Well, don't forget those voluntary holy communications for everyone. Cheers.

Charlie Scott

He arrived at B.C.S. as young Charles Scott a bright eyed woolly haired kid from Knowlton. Having a gluttonous pallet and the ability to wolf down 14 grilled cheeses, 2 packages of K.D., a pound of Nichol's bacon and 2 pints of Ben & Jerry's ice cream he assumed the identity of CHUNKY. Not unlike the Dentist and the Piper this cute little guy possesses a touch of eccentricity, a certain vitality and a devilish manner to charm (con) the pants off anybody. Bis spater CHUNKY! - Brian

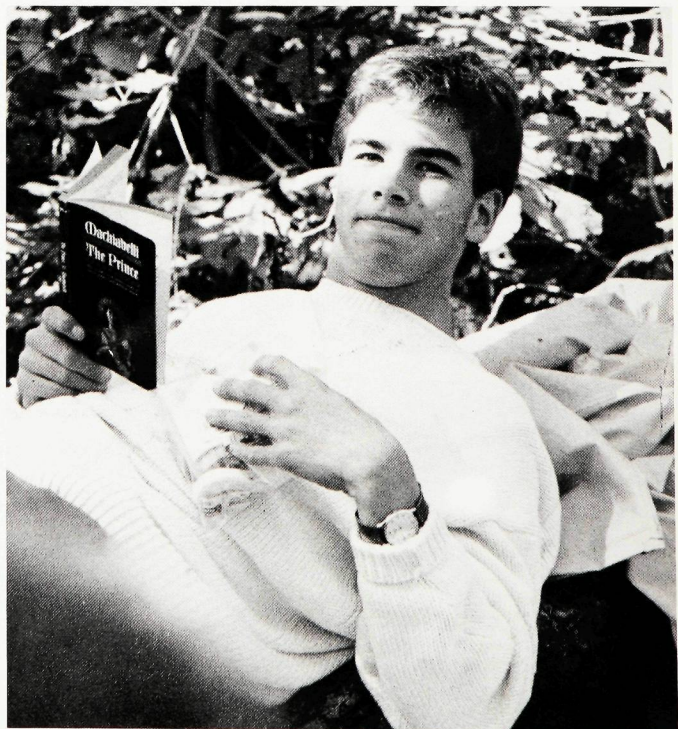

Kim Toffoli

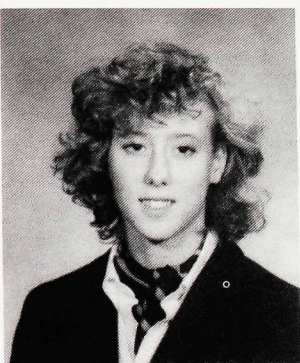

Angel Toffoli. Special Angel, one should say - blond hair (not bleached) among others. Not involved: yearbook, choir, carnival, band, f. hockey, a. committee, G.T.A, that's all. Kim gives the eyebrow, dirty sarcastic looks to scare . . . the teachers. Silence from her. "This school will never change me." - Doesn't care what people think . . . Parole est d'argent mais silence est d'or. Can't cry? Yell it out instead Kim. I'll always be there. Josh.

Raquel Welch

Hi, I'm an addict. Our spunky poo-poo can never get enough of anything. She's been through many different hairstyles and many a park and graveyard, just don't ask her what the cardinal password is. From plant to vegetable, from the fields to the gym, from bed to bench, Raquel will always be Rox; temperamental, stubborn, funny, loyal. Hee-heeing her way through life she will, no doubt, find happiness. Stay close to the waves and go with the flow. Love Soph & Tor.

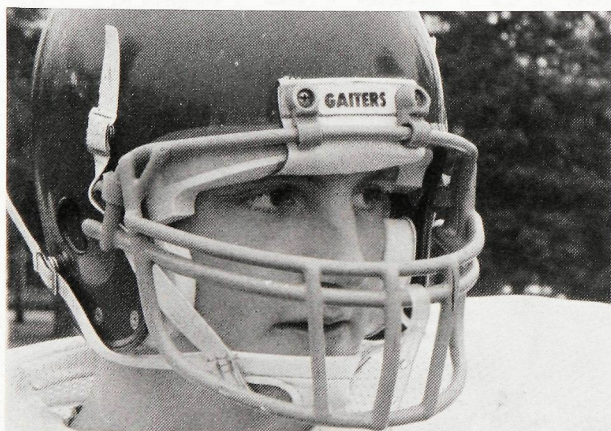

Ann Welch

"In so many ways you're a lot like me, just a prisoner trying to break free. I've seen fire and I've seen rain and I've seen sunny days that I thought would never end. So many adventures could happen today, so many songs we forgot to play, do we want to live forever young? Then one day you find ten years have got behind you, no one told you when to run, you've missed the starting gun. The time has gone, the song is over, thought I'd something more to say." Thanks for cracking the shell. Ann

MAKING CONTACT

The Senior Football team had an awesome season this year. The team's spirit and enthusiasm, under the fantastic coaching of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Cameron, made it possible to actually look forward to practice - who cares if it was - 20 C? Many great memories will stick with us from our experiences. Few of us will forget the Stringer's little screaming sessions. Over the next few years try to remember our famous line: "who gets more . . ."

Junior Football, an institution of pure power. Under our intrepid leaders, Mr. Marlin, Mr. Goodwin, Mr. MacDonald and Romo we have strived to near perfection. But a few questions are left unanswered as the season comes to an end: Why does Biff's voice get louder as the junior girl's soccer run by? Who is faster, Steve Richardson or Jeremy? Who talks more, Guy or Jamie? Does Phil Ciaravola actually feel pain? But the question everyone has been asking is who looks better Rafael or Kyler The high points of our season were the two 'Sunshine Bowls' where we played in sub-zero temperatures and both times there was a blizzard. These two games really showed the character of our team. Though we played completely as a team, certain players really stood out. Our inspirational leader Kyler Wells, the leader of our defence, Ewan Lilford and our two superstars Daragh Slowey and of course Guy Hackett. It has been a really great year and hopefully, with a few people staying next year, Junior Football will be as good as it was this year. (Maybe not!) James

What can be said about Senior Soccer that we haven't said already? With the longest season of any crease, (the pains of training camp), and the most success (ETIAC champs, etc) the team has shared too much to be put in a crease article. However there are some high points: stallionistic play, "Do you live in Grecoville?", "Don't shoot yet Chuck - wait for the truck", "We cruised - obviously!", "Dou-ble", W.W.F. dragoning everywhere. So basically what we're trying to say is . . . MERPH!

First Row: S. Auger, T. Girardin, C. De Saint Marie, E. Chaimovicz, S. McGillivray, I. Detchon Second Row: J. Stafford, G. Carvalhal, C. Ellis, T. Brink, C. Newman, R. Bedard Third Row: G. Bradley, T. Peacock, D. Fryer, M. David, J. Edwards Fourth Row: J. Macknish, Mr. Macknish

Well, basically, this year's Bantam Boys Soccer Team did better than, I think, was expected. We placed second in our league, mostly due to brilliant performances from Charles De Ste. Marie (ass. Capt.), Scott McGillivray, Ian Detchon, Eli Chaimovicz, Phil Kantardjieff, Toni Girardin, Tim Brink (ass. Capt.), myself and of course our goal keeper, Sylvain Auger. Although we did not get a chance to play in the play-offs, I would imagine that we would have done well enough to win the finals. Hopefully next year's team will have a better chance to win it all.

Till then, keep on "oogying"! Chris, Ellis, Captain.

The first day was great. Mr. Dutton said that if we weren't able to run seven laps in ten minutes, he wouldn't let us play in our first game. Maybe that's why we lost. Roddy, however, did play. Well, the season's end crept up on us, and so did Paulo's stomach hairs. Frank got promoted to bottle boy in chief, and he should have great technique by next year. For now though, for the sake of "Buddy" we're all praying that Mr. Hinz never takes up coaching football.

Thanks for a great year. - The team.

This year, Junior Girl's Soccer had quite an eventful year. Okay, so we didn't exterminate a certain R _____ from SCS, sorry Jen! But, Sally did do her best while sliding around the field. Pippa and Christy, our top scorers did an awesome job. Thanks guys!!! - and, let's not forget the yoyo man himself, Mr. St-Jacques, to whom we owe a lot . . . thanks for putting up with us. We also extend a special thank-you to Mrs. Goodwin and, of course, Ms. Nelson who mucked up her chance at being on our team, when she got suspended for intentional tripping. We appreciate you being there everyday with your cheerful smiles. I think we worked hard and, it paid off with the ties, wins and fun. (Well . . . losses also!) Love and Oogie, Oogies Michelynn.

'Twas the night before crease: day number one
 The moon shone brightly in the absence of sun.
 Tucked into bed the D's were asleep
 But in their dreams there were no sheep.
 Visions of soccer gave them a scare;
 Dreams they were not - only nightmares.
 What could be worse than 28 little girls for whom soccer was new? A plan would unfurl.
 The D's were determined it would be a great crop.
 Their wish did come true
 The first game was a victory; the next couple too.
 The semi-finals they did meet
 But the Triolet just couldn't be beat.
 So soccer fans never fear
 Bantam girls will be back next year.

When I was playing soccer I got shoved. I twirled and twisted as I lost my balance. I buckled and bent and folded like an umbrella. I rolled along the ground. Colours blurred in my eyes and they mixed into patterns of funny shaped people and peculiar coloured houses. (T. Waldie, age 10). That and other memories: Get up, you're still alive! Score! Let's go trio (la 'gang'). Vas-y-Marie. "Fight like triggers!" Shelly - good fake! Bert's blow-kiss. Ma-Ma. Just a bruise, eh? Get psyched! Oogie. "Bench-warmers revenge." Sara's nose - splits and language, SMILE! Nik, the Egyptian Bish Bop. Liz in nets? Jen and Christy's 'friends'. Mud wrestling . . . Josee's strip-tease. The blizzard. Bantam boys-cute? Not really. JUMPIN' JACK FLASH

Sweat, mud, muscles and a walkman. These are the contents of an average participation. This year participation was at its best. Instead of just plain Jane Fonda, we had an actual aerobics specialist and weight trainer: thanks Miss Vaneyk. We'd also like to thank Mr. Trower who tried to show us how to hit a squash ball. But, of course, full thanks goes to Mrs. Peacock who kept us together and always lifted our spirits. 'The Crease' was no substitute activity, this year, we were a team.

MONKEY GRIP

This year's group of young ladies come from all different backgrounds - experienced to beginners. The girls worked on all four pieces of equipment: Vault, Uneven Bars, Balance Beam and Floor-X.

In the final week, the girls competed in three events in an interclub compulsory-routine gymnastic competition. The results were as follows:

The all-around champions on the combined totals of the three events: 1st (gold) Mikala Moss, 2nd (silver) Annie Bergevin, 3rd (bronze) Jade Vachon

Congratulations to all the girls that participated.

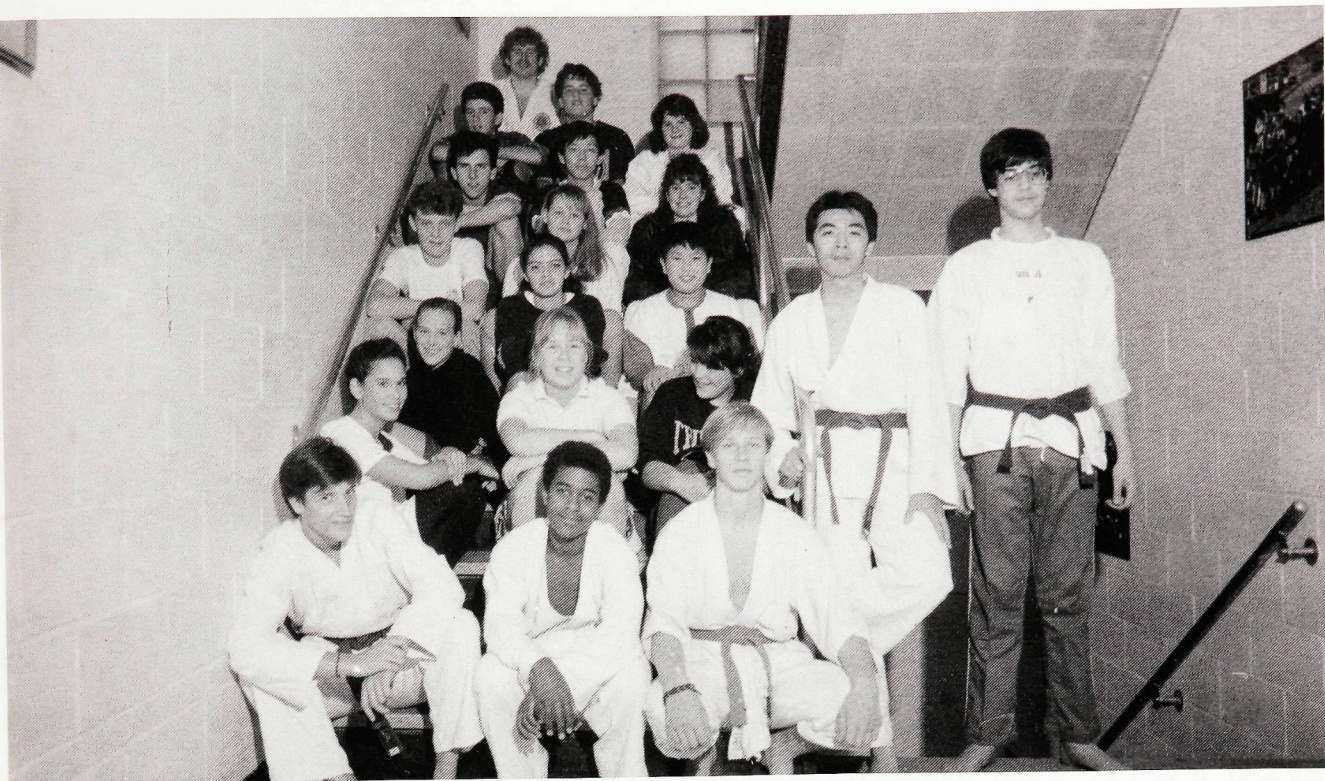

A special note should be made about Niki Elias. She is presently training in a local club more than fifteen hours a week, and we wish her all the success in the Minime A category in the Quebec Development Program.

This year's winner of the Most Improved Gymnast goes to Connie Su.

THE HOCKEY SWEATER

"Let's do something different today: lunges to the left!" Field Hockey had a fabulous season (when everyone was on crease). In order of importance, spirit before ability and in this we excelled. Thanks to Mr. Jansen, body-checking was legalized and bruises quickly multiplied, along with injuries to the knees and nose. We couldn't have asked for a better bunch of rookies. The tardy Smeetsies and Amanda's airballs added spice to the daily grind. "When I say go you say White, when I say all you say fight . . . anyway go Bish!" From the Super Friends' victory to the winning goal in the last five seconds, we didn't do so badly after all. "Gold? You must be joking! Yee-Ha!" Blonds versus Brunettes. May the most obnoxious team win. And who could forget the fabulous Fergie or Scoopie and all the rest? Congratulations on your first season Mr. Jansen and maybe next year, you'll learn how to play! Always treasure your pink milk crate. "We can handle any stick . . . on grass!" See you at old boys, Soph & Anne P.S. Feet!!!

This article is dedicated to the crease that is one step (make that a couple Km) ahead of the rest. What do you get when you take forty crazy people, two calm collected coaches and lots of suicidal workouts? Cross Country! It's been an interesting season; bees, sand hills, rock climbing at Coaticook, how much snow do we have to run in? The secret weapon (Brian's shorts), just a light crease, back to elementary school - girls catch the boys, late to crease sir? Fifteen push-ups and we're counting! Here's to all the real Cross Country-ers: the ones who keep on going no matter what, thanks for a great term!

Attention Class,

Today we will study the laws of motion on ice. This type of motion is defined as two blades each exerting a force.

Part of the force behind our team stood with our goaltending trio of Elvis, Swot, and Beause, who reflected their real images to the opposing teams. Pucks had a difficult time passing through our focal points. Our center of curvature, between our objects and images, shone light upon our team. Our local leprechaun, Chuck Slo, provided the scoring punch, with a lot of help from Father Phil, our traveling, and Sleepy Simon. Number 4, our vagabond poet, helped us "ogre" our way to success.

Add to this a lot of work and team cohesion and the images of success are present.

The reflected guidance from our valiant professor inspired the whole team to try harder, which the members did with zeal.

Dear Mom and Dad,

Skiing at Bromont is fun. Papa Smurf is taking good care of us. When we need him he says, "I'll be in the bar." Lydia and Lisa ate lots of hot dogs which is today's special from yesterday. Lucy looks like a sausage in her skiing outfits and Nathalie's a threat to humanity on the slope. Tim and Adam got stuck on the chair lift; and Marc and Nat got frost bite. Steeve is watching for a one piece pink bunny suit and Lucy is watching Steeve. Caroline's skiing will improve if she watches Aaron. Julia has been trying to get the skiing instructor to look at her; but keeps getting called 'Christie' instead. The girls keep complaining about the boys eating beans while wearing their snow suits.

Wish you were here.

Once upon a time, in a little school, there was a X-Country ski team. They had a fearless coach who rode about the trails on his "mean machine", guarding his racers from peril. (Of course he wasn't much use against those backseat seducers . . .). The racers (of course) were a huge success (at what odds?. 12 to one for us?). You could always tell when they were coming, in red T-shirts and those sexy, sexy suits. There were a few rough spots; (Thanks for being at the start on time ladies!), and definite problems with the weather!. The coach was very strict - crease Regardless! (Sorry, cnacelled.). Although there never really was crease, only races!. Of course there was a small bet . . . (Skate Dominic Skate!). But we could never figure out: "Is this cruiser for hockey or us?".

We were twelve athletes. All in perfect shape. The suicides which we ran in a flash motivated us to improve our left-handed lay-ups and foul shots. Mr. P.'s workouts killed us but we won our tournaments and got to the semi-finals. Most of all, the spirit of the team kept us going and we had a great time which made for an incredible season. Thanks, Rox and Anoos xxx.

1-4? 1-3-1? Zone? Pssst, which way are we going? Don't forget your book sir. Remember, we're not going shopping. Sit down Mr. Marlin! . . . Yes, we are awesome! We're the best and everyone knows, except Mr. Marlin. He's too busy ruffling his feathers. Keep on running Mr. Marlin.

Thank-you for coming ladies . . . Well, thank-you for the invitation Sir!

THUNDERBALL

First Row: D. Major, K. Hallward, C. De Saint Marie, E. Chaimovicz, A. Bergevin, D. Proulx, A. McCall, C. Su, T. Sethi, R. Quinlan Second Row: Mr. Cameron, O. Kassim, E. Moran, I. Gray-Donald, M. Bruneau, B. Enrich, E. Brand, K. Peacock, S. McGrath, E. Gallery, Mr. Slocombe

This year, as in the past, making the squash team was not easy. With a low number of available spots on the crease, many people were disappointed. But the lucky people who made the team, were blessed with the exquisite coaching from Mr. Cameron and Mr. Slocombe!

The chosen team this year was the youngest one in many years. The majority of the team was below sixth form. The juniors experienced tournaments at Stanstead, Bishop's University, M.A.A.A. club in Montreal, and Mirabel Squash Club. With the level of playing this year, Mr. Cameron should be last on the ladder next year! Just joking sir!

ALL THE RIGHT MOVES

This year was the first time ever that a boys basketball team had been formed at B.C.S. An abundance of interest convinced the brass that B.C.S. could not continue existence without a boys basketball team. Realizing that there was limited gym space, the group of thirteen players practiced intensely.

The team successfully won its opening game against Stanstead College School. The team continued its ecstatic performance throughout the first ever B.C.S. tournament.

The team would like to thank Mr. Hinz, and Mrs. Hinz for helping the enthusiastic players establish a team.

First Row: N. Khalil, F. McKellar, G. Michel, P. Fonsato, C. Chen, J. McKellar Second Row: Mrs. Hinz, L. Welch, A. Roy, J. Cloutier, D. Scholl, D. De Kee, N. Mengin, Mr. Hinz

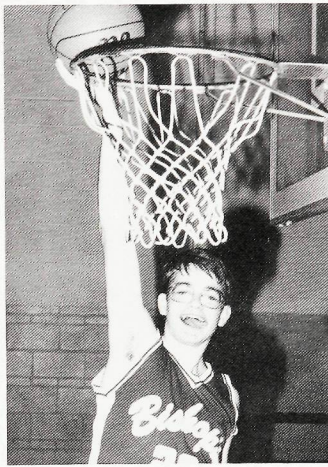

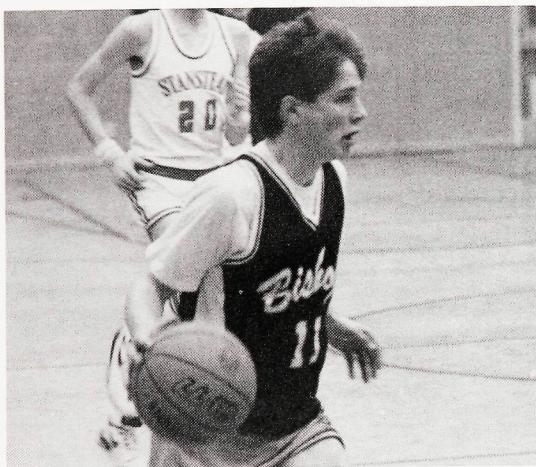

GETTING EVEN

Hi Mr. Bus Driver!

Galt again? Not running Sir? We all here? Let's go girls! . . . Girls Major Turnip? Wait, where's Teresa? Someone bring the music? Not the "c" word - aaaw Sir! You said only two, honest! You're the prize? Hmmm, can't we use the kids? Shake it off! They're tied Carol! Montreal here we come! Friday night? Def. Friday night. Wanna go boogy? Why not?

Only one loss the whole season. Not bad for a rookie coach! Thanks for an awesome season!

OUTRAGEOUS

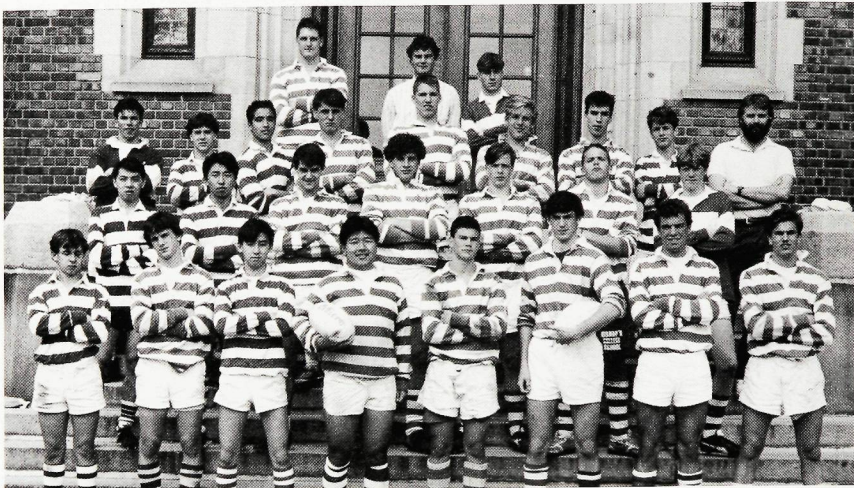

After we smash the birdies over the net and bounce the basketballs around, we turn pool blue as we cross the frostbitten bridge. we pump iron, we swim, we breathe, we dance, we crouch, we run . . . hesitate, when exasperated every face begs with unsounding screams. All this for our dear Jane and our hot cross buns.

Despite the fact that there wasn't a permanent, full-time coach for senior rugby this year, we maintained the high calibre of play which has come to be expected of the first fifteen. Though generally smaller than the other teams we played, (except for Tom), we made up for this fact through conditioning and experience, eventually sending both Selwyn and Rothesay to ignominious defeat, (18-0 and 12-0). A very special thank you goes to Bill Robson from B.U. for coaching and reffing and generally imparting his love for the sport to all of us.

“ ‘Gather round gents’”, and we’ll tell you about our successful season, losing only our first game to T.C.S. Our B team performed well in the seven’s tournament in Montreal, winning a second place. With Ahmed’s speed, Long’s tackling, and Pash’s stopping power, we ended our season on a very successful note.

- Paolo - lovely, lovely kickage!
- Tobin - your fearlessness for catching those up and unders.
- Ewan and Kyler - your influence as leaders.
- Daragh - your special ability of always finding a hole in the middle when it isn’t there.

After stomping through three foot puddles and sliding through mud that compared to Vietnamese trenches, we started as quite the disorganized team. But along with the “tender loving care” from our devoted, somewhat passionate coaches, Big Mac and Slim Jim, we came out on top as a no longer screwed up team but a team with many well rounded edges. Although we were not victorious very often, we tried our hardest, gave it our best, and enjoyed our games, along with very corny crease articles.

Jeremy Oldland and Sean Carr

CADDY SHACK

With the addition of three new players on the competitive crease, the chances of winning the famous Newport Invitational were better than ever. We finished second compared to third last year. But are we ever going to win that tournament? Since we only got on the course at the end of April, stretch, lift, run, and hit were the keys to our success, directed by Coach (Mr.) Goodwin. The conditioning finally paid off when we beat Galt and won our school invitational tournament. Too bad you lost your ball Chuck!

On behalf of the golf team, I'd like to thank Coach St. Jaques and the Goodwins for their encouragement and tips, especially to the Goodwins for their B.B.Q. The potato salad was awesome! And how can we forget Coach "partner" Evans. He inspired us the way Bob Mann did with his famous quote, "I'll take a million of those." Beside the slowness of some players, we had a great season.

Your partner forever,
Marc

BREAKAWAY

Come cycling at Bishop's College School!!!! Mike, our captain will take good care of you. How can you go wrong with a man who is wind resistant and wears complementary colours. We have found that the best weather to ride in is thunder and lightening. Your hair will look like a saturated mop. If you wish to improve your cycling skills, we recommend watching Sesame Street because they teach you things you don't know. And if we enter a bikathon; don't worry we won't go too fast. The thing you will like the most about cycling is the end. It will make you feel good!!!

A SHOT IN THE DARK

This years' tennis crease was an extra special one with many new players in the younger forms who played an excellent game. We attended tournaments against Stanstead, North Country, and Selwyn House and seldom lost a match.

We started out the term playing in snow but gradually the sun came out which improved everyone's game tremendously. Many thanks to Mr. Peacock and Mr. Bedard for their help throughout the term.

CHARIOTS OF FIRE

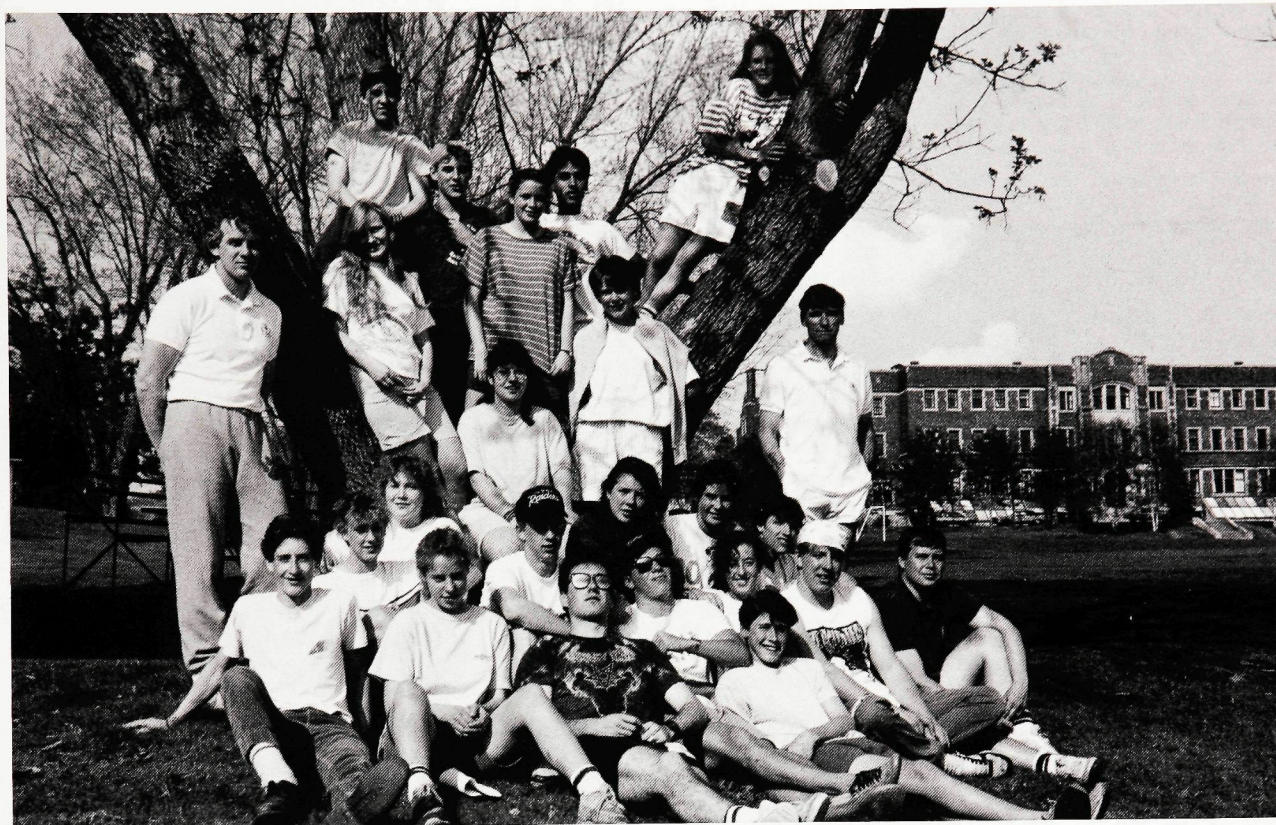

"Are you up for it?" he asks. "It's only an easy run today - about a twelve km run." And so it began: Mr. Marlin's bounce . . . our spandex club . . . and too many "easy" runs! "I think we're up to 600 seconds on the stomach today." "You put me in all the events! But I don't know how!" "The cross country won't be muddy - trust me!" "Okay, for today's desertion run, the bus is letting us off in Montreal . . ." "The expert tent crew . . . only 200 more events before the meet is over!" Remember, the race is not always to the swift but to those who keep on running . . . and running . . . and running . . .

We hiked forever - blisters, frostbite, and pain - we thought they would bring us back in a body bag! It was awesome. Hang-ten Fritz. Sharon, we could have left you at the house at Pooh Corner. "It's just around the bend." "Does Champs deliver in the woods." "Don't worry Sparling!"

Down is good
Flat is Better
Up is . . .
Rafting kicks . . . it's an experience.
Official A.T. song
Some say they wouldn't like it
It's just too far to go
But all you other students
Bishop's you just don't know.
We don't wanta
Ever lose that A.T. groove!

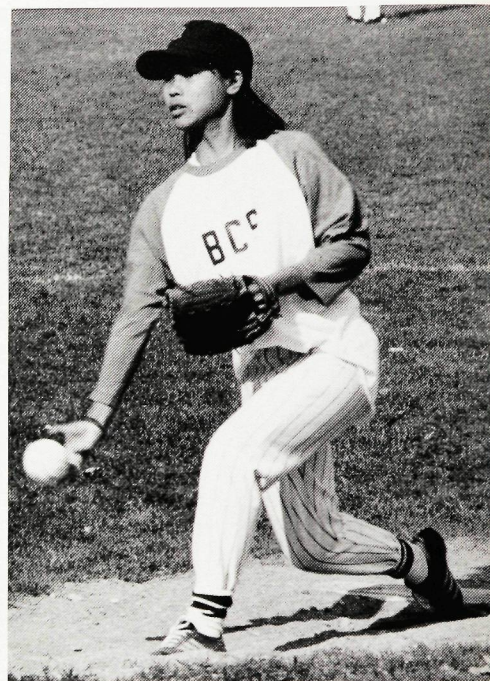

THE NATURAL

For the first time in the history of B.C.S. (as we know it) the girls softball team somehow managed to finish first in the league, as well as defeating an American team (even if they did suck). This was perhaps due to our many experienced coaches who never contradicted themselves and were flawless (Mr. D!) in their own minds! But we believe it was due to Buddy the ball chewer.

Special thanks to Mrs. Detchon, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, and Meg for their support (and their food). Thanks to our coaches. It was a great year.

Our main goal was to never stop moving and we never did Roaming River-views, lifting weights, and swimming at B.U. kept us in shape. Also, competition was the name of the game. We could probably handle anyone from Hogball to soccer baseball (American rules). Ultimate frisbee? Why not? . . . In the rain rolling around in the mud (remember Lucy?). Holding squash rackets for the first time with Mr. Trower. Then again, we had to rearrange the list to satisfy everyone. Remember girls our good advice: Fit for life is the right way; it's the only way . . . looking your best on Saturday mornings in the B.U. cafeteria . . . don't forget your card number!

Thanks for a great time Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Peacock

Is this Poki's bridle . . . saddle . . . halter? How many key pads? Oh God, I've got Amigo. Will we ever get to a triple combination. Shawn's boots. Shawn, sometimes you do the strangest things. Hands down, toes in, eyes up! They don't ride like this in Brazil. Okay everyone, circle in reverse. Does that mean we're going in the same direction. Pray for the good bus. Ginger again! I don't want to hear any of your guff. Don't turn on the radio - Mrs. Colemans got a headache. "It's been a long day." It's okay to smile you know!

and pleasure

At UNIGLOBE®, we take care of business travelers — by double checking reservations, searching for the most direct route at the best fare, and confirming hotel rooms at lower rates. This kind of service has made UNIGLOBE one of the world's largest travel agency systems.

We take the same approach with vacation travelers. Whether it's a special tour, a family vacation or a ski holiday. We do lots of research to make your vacation a pleasure, and there's no fee for our work. At UNIGLOBE, we do something most other travel agents don't.

We take care.
